An explanation of the contents of the various boxes on the W-2 form is as follows: Wages, tips, other compensation: The premium payments for this excess coverage, if any, have been included as imputed income see Excess Insurance Premium-- below ; Amounts which are excluded from this amount are: Tax deferred annuity contributions i. Health, Dental and Vision Care insurance premiums that have been sheltered; e. Amounts voluntarily contributed to a dependent care or a medical reimbursement account. Also included this year are fees for Parking, Transit Checks, Transpass and the Van Pool which have been sheltered since September Federal income tax withheld: Social security tax withheld: Benefits included in box 1: If you have received any of these benefits the University has recently advised you, individually and personally, concerning their taxability; please refer to those communications specifically. Medicare wages and tips: The amount which appears in Box 13 and labeled C is the value of the premiums paid for this excess insurance coverage. Tax deferred annuity contributions: The amount is shown in Box 13 and labeled E. Excludable moving expense reimbursements: The amount is shown in Box 13 and labeled P. If any reimbursements or third party payments were deemed to be taxable income you were notified of these amounts under separate cover. If the number is incorrect, then the University Payroll system is also inaccurate and you should contact the Payroll Office, immediately, before you file your returns. State wages, tips, etc.: If you do not live in Pennsylvania no amount will be reflected in this box. If you lived a portion of the year in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and another portion in New Jersey or Delaware, you will receive two W-2 forms, one showing the state taxes paid to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the other showing no taxes paid to the other jurisdiction. Local wages, tips, etc.: When you receive your W-2 form, please review it immediately to ensure that your name is spelled correctly and that your Social Security number is correct. If you feel that any information on your W-2 is incorrect, review your calculations carefully and compare the information on the form with your final pay stub. If you have availed yourself of certain taxable benefits please review any additional information which was provided to you, under separate cover, concerning these benefits and their impact on your tax status. You should have received, via the U. Federal and State forms are also available at many libraries and U.
