Enturbulated by all the suppressive terminology on ars? Feeling nattery, want to blow? Suffering from severe MU phenomenon? Or are your Body Thetans just acting up? The official Scientology glossary not as complete as this FAQ due to a lack of inclusion of secret nomenclature and ars-specific nomenclature is at: Many thanks to S. Hyped-up technobabble for simply talking between an auditor and a pc or a supervisor and a student. Also, another term for an engram, or a hidden memory of pain and unconsciousness. One of many Scientology front-groups. Able Int is now located at the HGB, qv. Academy, the area in an Scientology organization known as an Org in which the advanced training is carried out. Lower level training is done in the Div 6, public division course room. Usually a "good", "ok", "I got that", or "thank you. Often in small letters, "act", or with periods, "a. Of course, some people have it that the group actually deals with acne pimple remedies Detailed bureaucracy taken to new heights; thousands of green on white issues written by L. Admin Dictionary, a large green Scientology dictionary made up of quotes from L. Ron Hubbard that defines some of the thousands of new terms Scientology introduced with its massive administration bureaucracy. A final self-bestowed promotion, given humbly to himself there was no one else to do it by Hubbard just before his death. Affinity, used as a synonym for love or like. Affluence, a condition or level of high and climbing production. Aptly named, as higher production means more money. A Scientology group that delivers the higher parts of the Bridge, such as Operating Thetan OT , the Ls lists that are shouted out to the patient , etc. Apollo, was one of L. Ron loved to play sailor-man. ARC is used as a synonym for love or like or general warmth to be applied to raw meat marks green Scientologists to smooth the earlier stages of brainwashing. Often lower-case; "30, people a month read ars, according to Arbitron. Scientology Central Committee; It is a game. The OSA Scientologists have tried to represent opposition to Scientology as emanating from one or other focus - at first, it was Dennis Erlich. Later, it was FactNet. There is a real inspiration for this. Another time, he described the opposition as just twelve highly powerful suppressives yes, bankers and financiers. He just loved to spin yarns, and in honor of this, we do the same. Berendo Street now L. A Scientology front-group whose purpose is to skim money out of the organization and channel it to the person at the top, formerly L. Also called Author Services. Probably immediately under RTC. It is senior to all other organizations but is not part of the command channels. As-is, to look at something and make it vanish like magic. Auditing, the action of running Scientology or Dianetic processes on a PC a preclear; someone receiving Scientology processing. Auditing usually involves a Meter, with the PC holding onto the soup cans electrodes, and the Auditor taking down notes and asking questions. Set up to ensure that all the drivel that comes out is "on source" and not "off policy". The imprimatur means that the issue has been reviewed by a Scientology authority and has been given "IA", or Issue Authority seal of approval. Baby Watch, see Introspection Rundown. Bank, the reactive mind; supposedly packed with "overts," or undisclosed acts, and engrams or moments or pain and unconsciousness. Also, anything negative seen as coming from the reactive mind. A Free Zone term, qv. Basic Basic, the earliest incident on a chain of engrams, sometimes just called Basic. Beingness, a word Hubbard probably plagiarized from Nordenholz. Implies the rewarding experience of being something, assuming a valence another personality or hat an office or post in Scientology. Hubbard fit beingness into a triptych with doingness and havingness. A Big Win may be incomprehensible to Scientology outsiders. I began to see what really lies behind my case! LSD users need not apply. Black Hats, the bad guys. Ron wrote corny Westerns for a while, which might explain where the term came from. Also, the person who does this. To get rid of the charge or mass of an engram a moment of pain and unconsciousness. The idea being that public are such low-toned wogs a common Scientology derogation of Scientology outsiders that they have no self-determination, and need to be led like sheep to the slaughter. Body Thaytans, see BTs. B of I, board of investigation. A Scientology kangaroo-court-like internal Ethics board. Also called "Grim Weepers", and just "Weepers. Bridge, the bridge to total freedom; the list of auditing actions needed to get to the highest OT operating thetan level, currently OT 8. One is auditor or therapist training classes or classifications, the other is receiving auditing or "therapy" such as Grades and OT levels, qv. At the lower levels the grades and classes or classifications correspond, this pretty much stops after Class 6 Saint Hill Special Briefing Course. Evil spirits which need to be exorcized. Hubbard decided that only he knew the true path of technological enlightenment of the wallet. Bullbaiting, a training routine involving two students. The receiving student must simply accept whatever is done to him or her, in what is basically a lesson in passivity. Cadet Org, any of various orgs for warehousing children of Sea Org parents. Policy is for SO women to abort their babies when ordered, but when the unfortunates survive to full term, they are placed in these horrific organizations. Reports are rampant with child abuse in these places ranging from neglect, to maggots in their food, to severe under staffing, filthy and smelly conditions, and enforced parental neglect SO parents are allowed as little as one hour per week to see their children, called "family time". The Cadet orgs even have their own RPFs, or punishment camps. Cal Mag, a mixture of calcium and magnesium in water said to have amazing restorative powers, according to soi-disant "scientist", L. The PC patient holds them in his or her hands. There are several of these around the world, incorporated with the intention of luring in actors and other prominent people to give the cult a shiny PR image, the theory being that if John Travolta and Kirsty Alley are Scientologists, other people will want to join up and sign away their life savings. Also oversees the other CCs. CCHR is a front group for Scientology. CCHR has moved elsewhere. Celebrity Center, see CC. Central Files, see CF. A major service is considered paying for and completing a level or training, technical or administrative, or an auditing intensive. To sign up for a major service, a member must either have 6 months free IAS membership in existence, or be on the yearly paid membership. Chain, a run of memory incidents or engrams of a similar type, or with the same content. Charge, mental mass in restimulation, or constant upheaval, contained in the reactive mind, or memory bank. This may not make much sense, but then, many things in Scientology are like that. In colloquial usage, charge refers to areas a person may be touchy about. CI, see Counter-intention, Intention. Clam, a derogatory term for a Scientologist. See Ronbot, Hubbardite, scieno. The term was adopted on ars as the name for the IRC channel clambake now scientology , and has more recently been applied to any situation where Scientology suffers a big loss. Clams, Man descended from them according to "History of Man" by L. This has been a running joke on ars for some time, with threads about clambakes, clam chowder, snapping clams, clams in. See Class V Org. Class V Org, the most common Scientology organizations; most major urban centers in the Western world have one. They are senior to missions or franchises, but otherwise at the bottom rung of the command channels. They can deliver services up to and including Class V auditor training and processing through to New Era Dianetics and clearing. Class 8 auditor, A class 8 auditor is highly "trained" and can audit anyone on repair stuff up to OT 4 or the grades, etc.
