This is the original edition of the Baltimore Catechism, with updated typesetting, a fresh new cover, larger format, quality binding and the same trusted content. This edition was originally written with the title "For the Use of Sunday-School Teachers and Advanced Classes".

Since the Baltimore Catechism was first launched in , it has proved an incomparable tool for passing on the faith to the next generation. The revival of this Catechism reflects the growing realisation among Catholics, that to accept, practice and defend the holy faith, we must first understand and learn its truths. Clearly and concisely explaining what Catholics believe, the Baltimore Catechism remains a classic and authoritative reference work for Catholics and non-Catholics alike. The question and answer format stimulates successful growth in knowledge of Christ and His Church, dealing with important questions of faith and morals in a clear yet concise manner. There are questions with detailed responses that are often over a page in length. Teachers and parents will also find this traditional catechism invaluable when instructing children in the fundamental truths of Catholicism whether it is used on its own conjunction with the other books in the Baltimore Catechism series. This manual will serve both educators and families for a life time. The practice of fasting and abstinence has been updated to correspond with Canon Law. Who made the world? God made the world. God is the Creator of heaven and earth, and of all things. Man is a creature composed of body and soul, and made to the image and likeness of God. Is this likeness in the body or in the soul? This likeness is chiefly in the soul. How is the soul like to God? The soul is like God because it is a spirit that will never die, and has understanding and free will. Why did God make you? God made me to know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him in this world, and to be happy with Him forever in the next. Of which must we take more care, our soul or our body? We must take more care of our soul than of our body. Why must we take more care of our soul than of our body? We must take more care of our soul than of our body, because in losing our soul we lose God and everlasting happiness. What must we do to save our souls? To save our souls we must worship God by faith, hope, and charity; that is, we must believe in Him, hope in Him, and love Him with all our heart. How shall we know the things which we are to believe? We shall know the things which we are to believe from the Catholic Church, through which God speaks to us. Where shall we find the chief truths which the Church teaches? He descended into hell: He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. God is a spirit infinitely perfect. Had God a beginning A. God had no beginning; He always was and He always will be. If God is everywhere, why do we not see Him? We do not see God, because He is a pure spirit and cannot be seen with bodily eyes. Does God see us? God sees us and watches over us. Does God know all things? God knows all things, even our most secret thoughts, words, and actions. Can God do all things? God can do all things, and nothing is hard or impossible to Him. Is God just, holy, and merciful? God is all just, all holy, all merciful, as He is infinitely perfect. Is there but one God? Yes; there is but one God. Why can there be but one God? There can be but one God, because God, being supreme and infinite, cannot have an equal. How many Persons are there in God? Is the Father God? Is the Son God? Is the Holy Ghost God? What do you mean by the Blessed Trinity? Are the three Divine Persons equal in all things? The three Divine Persons are equal in all things. Are the three Divine Persons one and the same God? The three Divine Persons are one and the same God, having one and the same Divine nature and substance. Can we fully understand how the three Divine Persons are one and the same God? We cannot fully understand how the three Divine Persons are one and the same God, because this is a mystery. What is a mystery? A mystery is a truth which we cannot fully understand. Who created heaven and earth, and all things? God created heaven and earth, and all things. How did God create heaven and earth? God created heaven and earth from nothing by His word only; that is, by a single act of His all-powerful will. Which are the chief creatures of God? The chief creatures of God are angels and men. Angels are pure spirits without a body, created to adore and enjoy God in heaven. Were the angels created for any other purpose? The angels were also created to assist before the throne of God and to minister unto Him; they have often been sent as messengers from God to man; and are also appointed our guardians. Were the angels, as God created them, good and happy? The angels, as God created them, were good and happy. Did all the angels remain good and happy? All the angels did not remain good and happy; many of them sinned and were cast into hell, and these are called devils or bad angels. Who were the first man and woman? The first man and woman were Adam and Eve. Were Adam and Eve innocent and holy when they came from the hand of God? Adam and Eve were innocent and holy when they came from the hand of God. Did God give any command to Adam and Eve? To try their obedience God commanded Adam and Eve not to eat of a certain fruit which grew in the garden of Paradise. Which were the chief blessings intended for Adam and Eve had they remained faithful to God? The chief blessings intended for Adam and Eve, had they remained faithful to God, were a constant state of happiness in this life and everlasting glory in the next. Did Adam and Eve remain faithful to God? Adam and Eve did not remain faithful to God; but broke His command by eating the forbidden fruit. What befell Adam and Eve on account of their sin? Adam and Eve, on account of their sin, lost innocence and holiness, and were doomed to sickness and death. What evil befell us on account of the disobedience of our first parents? On account of the disobedience of our first parents, we all share in their sin and punishment, as we should have shared in their happiness if they had remained faithful. What other effects followed from the sin of our first parents? Our nature was corrupted by the sin of our first parents, which darkened our understanding, weakened our will, and left in us a strong inclination to evil. What is the sin called which we inherit from our first parents? The sin which we inherit from our first parents is called original sin. Why is this sin called original? This sin is called original because it comes down to us from our first parents, and we are brought into the world with its guilt on our soul. Does this corruption of our nature remain in us after original sin is forgiven? This corruption of our nature and other punishments remain in us after original sin is forgiven. Was any one ever preserved from original sin? The Blessed Virgin Mary, through the merits of her Divine Son, was preserved free from the guilt of original sin, and this privilege is called her Immaculate Conception. Is original sin the only kind of sin? Original sin is not the only kind of sin; there is another kind of sin, which we commit ourselves, called actual sin. What is actual sin? Actual sin is any willful thought, word, deed, or omission contrary to the law of God. How many kinds of actual sin are there? There are two kinds of actual sin—mortal and venial. What is mortal sin? Mortal sin is a grievous offense against the law of God. Why is this sin called mortal? This sin is called mortal because it deprives us of spiritual life, which is sanctifying grace, and brings everlasting death and damnation on the soul.

Chapter 3 : Baltimore Catechism Number 2

An Explanation of the Baltimore Catechism of Christian Doctrine, also known as Baltimore Catechism No. 4, provides teachers, parents and adults wanting to know more about the Faith with a complete overview of essential Catholic belief.

History[edit] In the nineteenth century, repeated efforts had been made in the United States towards an arrangement by which a uniform textbook of Christian doctrine might be used by all Catholics. The wish of the bishops was not carried out and the First and Second Plenary Councils of Baltimore and repeated the decree of In the Third Plenary Council many bishops were in favor of a "revised" edition of a catechism by Archbishop Butler from Ireland, but finally the matter was given into the hands of a committee of six bishops. The council had desired a catechism "perfect in every respect" Acta et Decr. As was true of nearly all new catechisms of the 19th century there was some initial criticisms, but the overwhelming preponderance of reviews were positive. Nearly every US bishop gave the new national catechism his official approbation and soon schools in diocese after diocese adopted the Baltimore Catechism as their religious education textbook. Soon various editions came forth with additions of word-meanings, explanatory notes, some even with different arrangements, so that soon there was a considerable diversity in the books that go by the name of Baltimore Catechism. The Baltimore Catechism became the standard text for Catholic education in the United States for the next four generations. Original volumes[edit] The standard edition was created by Fr. Januarius De Concilio during the Council and published on April 6, Then for no known reason Bishop John Lancaster Spalding deleted many of the questions, reordering some, to make an abridged version containing questions. In September Bishop Spalding registered a separate copyright under his own name for what became commonly known as Baltimore Catechism Number 1. Since the standard text was larger, people and publishers came to refer to it as Baltimore Catechism Number 2. Revised volumes[edit] Later in the twentieth century the United States bishops decided to update the Baltimore Catechism. During the process they were determined to address the handful of criticisms that scholars had raised against the original. For example, the version was primarily written by one man, Fr. So the revised edition involved hundreds of theologians, scholars and teachers. The original was primarily written in ten days while the revised versions took years, in a long process of review and editing. De Concilio crafted one text which he intended for use by all schoolchildren, the revised text resulted not in one catechism, but a series of texts for different ages and grades. Connell, professor of Moral Theology at the Catholic University of America, as editor and theological advisor in the production of the graded texts. Volume 2 The 37 lessons contained in Baltimore Catechism No. Volume 3 The 37 lessons contained in Baltimore Catechism No. It includes additional questions, definitions, examples, and applications that build upon the content of the original Baltimore Catechism No. It is often used as an advanced textbook. Its explanations of many little known questions pertaining to the Catholic Faith are designed to reward the questioning reader.

Chapter 4 : Baronius Press: Baltimore Catechism No.4

Baltimore Catechism One is a simpler edition intended for first through fourth graders; it offers half of the questions contained in Two. Baltimore Catechism Two contains the full number of questions and answers issued by the original commission.

What is the difference between making and creating? Has everything that exists been created? Everything that exists except God Himself has been created. Who created heaven and earth, and all things? God created heaven and earth, and all things. From what do we learn that God created heaven and earth and all things? We learn that God created heaven and earth and all things from the Bible or Holy Scripture, in which the account of the Creation is given. Why did God create all things? God created all things for His own glory and for their or our good. Did God leave all things to themselves after He had created them? God did not leave all things to themselves after He had created them; He continues to preserve and govern them. What do we call the care by which God preserves and governs the world and all it contains? We call the care by which God preserves and governs the world and all it contains His providence. How did God create heaven and earth? God created heaven and earth from nothing by His word only; that is, by a single act of His all-powerful will. Which are the chief creatures of God? The chief creatures of God are angels and men. Things that exist, as air; Things that exist, grow and live, as plants and trees; Things that exist, grow, live and feel, as animals; Things that exist, grow, live, feel and understand, as man. Angels are pure spirits without a body, created to adore and enjoy God in heaven. If Angels have no bodies, how could they appear? Angels could appear by taking bodies to render themselves visible for a time; just as the Holy Ghost took the form of a dove and the devil took the form of a serpent. Name some persons to whom Angels appeared. Angels appeared to the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph; also to Abraham, Lot, Jacob, Tobias and others. Were the angels created for any other purpose? The angels were also created to assist before the throne of God and to minister unto Him; they have often been sent as messengers from God to man; and are also appointed our guardians. Are all the Angels equal in dignity? All the Angels are not equal in dignity. There are nine choirs or classes mentioned in the Holy Scripture. The highest are called Seraphim and the lowest simply Angels. The Archangels are one class higher than ordinary Angels. Mention some Archangels and tell what they did. The Archangel Raphael guided and protected Tobias. Were Angels ever sent to punish men? Angels were sometimes sent to punish men. What do our guardian Angels do for us? Our guardian Angels pray for us, protect and guide us, and offer our prayers, good works and desires to God. How do we know that Angels offer our prayers and good works to God? Why did God appoint guardian Angels if He watches over us Himself? God appointed guardian Angels to secure for us their help and prayers, and also to show His great love for us in giving us these special servants and faithful friends. Were the angels, as God created them, good and happy? The angels, as God created them, were good and happy. Did all the angels remain good and happy? All the angels did not remain good and happy; many of them sinned and were cast into hell, and these are called devils or bad angels. Do we know the number of good and bad Angels? We do not know the number of the good or bad Angels, but we know it is very great. Before he fell, Satan, or the devil, was called Lucifer, or light-bearer, a name which indicates great beauty. He was cast out of heaven because through pride he rebelled against God. How do the bad Angels act toward us? The bad Angels try by every means to lead us into sin. The efforts they make are called temptations of the devil. Why does the devil tempt us? The devil tempts us because he hates goodness, and does not wish us to enjoy the happiness which he himself has lost. Can we by our own power overcome the temptations of the devil? We cannot by our own power overcome the temptations of the devil, because the devil is wiser than we are; for, being an Angel, he is more intelligent, and he did not lose his intelligence by falling into sin any more than we do now. Therefore, to overcome his temptations we need the help of God.
