She was the daughter of Chieko and Haruo , and the older sister of Susumu. During high school, Tsukushi became acquainted with the heir of Domyoji Group , Tsukasa Domyoji , whom she hated at first. They later became friends and eventually entered into a romantic relationship. Contents Biography Early life "She was always happy and popular, and nice to everybody! She always had friends around her. Her parents named her after a weed, because "it always grows back stronger than ever". She was made an elder sister when her brother Susumu was born. At the time, they were close friends, but they lost contact after moving on to middle school. Her friend, Shingo Oribe confessed romantic feelings toward her during this time, though she did not reply at the time. After entering Eitoku, she became withdrawn in an attempt to remain "quiet and unnoticed. Tsukushi also befriended another middle-class student Makiko Endo , who was in the same class as her. After school, Tsukushi worked part-time at Sengoku Sweets with Yuki. This is my declaration of war! One day, Makiko slipped down a flight of stairs while they were walking to class. Tsukushi took up for her friend, insulting Tsukasa in the process. Instead of quietly leaving school, Tsukushi decided to fight back against the F4 and declared her own war on them. Tsukushi then ran to an emergency stairwell, where she spoke to Rui Hanazawa for the first time. Rui happened by and ordered them to stop. Tsukushi thanked him, though he replied "do [not] misunderstand. She was able to block all of the students attempts to bully her. Tsukushi then kicked Tsukasa in the face, telling him "you call yourself a man?! You are [not] even worth contempt! Later, Tsukushi thanked Rui again for his help, to which he responded with harsh words. She, however, did not feel angry at him. She was in too much shock to resist. Afterwards, Tsukasa made her an offer to "let [her] hang around him. Tsukushi confronted Tsukasa first, thinking he was the culprit. They acted friendly towards her and invited her to a party. There they humiliated Tsukushi, being jealous of her interactions with the F4 particularly Rui. Unbeknownst to them, Yuriko and her friends were watching and later confronted Tsukushi about Shizuka Todo , whom Rui was in love with. Tsukushi refused his help and pushed him away. They told her a story about Rui and Shizuka from their childhood, which sent Tsukushi into a daze. That night, Tsukushi saw Rui kissing a poster of Shizuka. He mockingly asked her if she was in love with him, before kissing her on the cheek. Shizuka arrived from France the following day. Tsukasa became jealous after seeing them together and promptly sent a red card to him. They began yelling at each other, and he slapped her and she punched him in retaliation. Seeing Tsukushi distressed, Rui put a stop to the bullying and picked her up. The stress of the day caused Tsukushi to faint from a fever. She stayed home the next day. Tsukasa visited her, much to annoyance. Her parents insisted that she walked him to his car. He offered to pay for her ticket to Hawaii. She refused, deciding to go to Atami with Kazuya. They were greeted at the beach by Tsukasa on his yacht. Tsukushi hesitated to accept, but agreed after seeing Rui. Shizuka invited her to a party later that night. She helped Tsukushi with her outfit and make-up. During her first year of high school, she often styled her hair in shoulder length braids. After confronting the F4 , Tsukushi stopped wearing her hair in braids, leaving it down most of the time. Her hair remained straight and shoulder-length, until part of it was cut by Junpei Oribe. Tsukushi then wore her hair as a short bob-cut. Personality and traits She was a strong-willed, tough person with a strong sense of justice. Being named after a weed, Tsukushi often referenced, saying things like "you can pull a weed and mow it down, but it always grows back stronger than ever. Behind the scenes See also: Tsukushi is the heroine of the manga, Boys Over Flowers and appears in every incarnation of the series. Uchida plays Tsukushi as a stubborn, lower-class student attending Eitoku Gakuen University, similar to the original. The story starts with Tsukushi angering Tsukasa by refusing to join his fan club. She falls for Rui Hanazawa at the beginning, and slowly becomes friends with Tsukasa. At the end of the film, Tsukushi realizes that Rui is meant to be with Shizuka and she reunites with Tsukasa. Mochida also voices Tsukushi in the short film, Hana Yori Dango: In the film, Tsukushi is an aspiring dancer on Broadway, instead a high school student. Tsukushi works an errand girl at Freedom Dance Studios by day, while training hard at dancing by night. The frog informs him that she used to be human, however Rui wakes up before he can help her. In Returns, she is given an aspiration, to be a lawyer like Shizuka. She and Tsukasa marry in Final, unlike in the manga where they are still only engaged. She was sixteen at the time, making her the youngest actress to ever portray Tsukushi.

The row of half-dressed women expounded on their experiences with this same woman. Finally, the naked beanpole next to me announced, "She must be very unhappy. Even the little things in life become critical- the lunch you made for a child, the smile you gave the tired cashier, the old woman you held the door for. One encounter, One chance! Sojiro uses this saying to justify his numerous sexual encounters and it costs him the one love he might have had. The choices we make now will affect our future and maybe even the future of those who encounter us. So use today wisely. Protect a child or an animal. Love someone who needs love. Practice patience and endurance when hardship comes. Find joy in the small things and be slow to anger. Return rudeness with kindness and gentleness. Chose self-control over self-indulgence. Be fiercely faithful to those you love and the principles you live by. One encounter- one chance Let me what happened to you today!

In Boys over Flowers, the two main characters try to take their relationship a step further however it leads to more problems. While Tsukasa's mother continues to try to separate his relationship with Tsukasi, he ends up seeking out of the house just to stay with her but his mother has him watched by the secret police.

When F4 bullies a boy to the verge of suicide, the poor but vivacious Geum Jan-di Ku Hye-sun saves his life and receives a swimming scholarship to attend the High School. Immediately, Geum Jan-di dislikes her wealthy classmates and is disgusted by the obsession surrounding the F4 boys. Irrked by her strong-headed nature, Gu Jun-pyo singles out Geum Jan-di to bully but she stands up to him and he begins to fall in love with her. Meanwhile, Geum Jan-di develops feelings for Yoon Ji-hoo. She soon discovers that Yoon Ji-hoo fosters a one-sided love for Min Seo-hyun, a successful model and his childhood friend. He declares to the school that she is his girlfriend. When the photos are leaked in the school, Gu Jun-pyo is outraged and believes that Geum Jan-di has been cheating on her. Subsequently, his fans and crowd of adoring classmates begin to bully and abuse Geum Jan-di. Oh Min-ji secretly discloses to Gu Jun-pyo of her involvement with the photos. It is revealed that they have been classmates since kindergarten, and that Oh Min-ji has long been trying to win his attention by undergoing cosmetic plastic surgery. Gu Jun-pyo shuns Oh Min-ji for betraying her friend and rushes to save Geum Jan-di, who is attacked by bullies. He apologizes for doubting her and their bond grows stronger. Yoon Ji-hoo returns, causing Geum Jan-di to feel confused about her feelings. While Gu Jun-pyo relentlessly tries to shower her with affection, she is increasingly distracted by Yoon Ji-hoo. During a weekend trip on a private island, Gu Jun-pyo walks in on her sharing a kiss with Yoon Ji-hoo and he expresses his hurt in a rage. The next morning, he leaves the island and becomes reclusive, causing Geum Jan-di to feel guilty. She realizes that she is in love with him and declares this when Gu Jun-pyo feigns an accident. Geum Jan-di perseveres and finds a friend in an overly-helpful model, who helps her earn money by modeling for a magazine. This angers Gu Jun-pyo as he feels hurt by Geum Jan-di seeking help from someone else. When she is kidnapped by the model, it is revealed that he is the younger brother of the student whose suicide Geum Jan-di had prevented, and he seeks revenge. Gu Jun-pyo arrives alone and the model has him beat up in front of a tied up Geum Jan-di, but they are rescued by the F4 members in time. However, in this incident Geum Jan-di hurts her shoulder, that prevents her from swimming in future. He leaves the city, turns cold toward his friends and Geum Jan-di, and begins to accompany his mother for formal arrangements. Geum Jan-di and F4 pursue him and try to convince him to break-free, however he turns them away. It is evident that both Gu Jun-pyo and Geum Jan-di still love each other, however Ha Jae-kyung falls in love with Gu Jun-pyo and tries to win him over. She soon realizes that it is futile, and during the procession of their wedding, she refuses to marry Gu Jun-pyo and expresses that she will feel guilty that she was standing in the way for a meant to be relationship. Geum Jan-di and Gu Jun-pyo reunite, however due to her friends being threatened by his mother, Geum Jan-di leaves the city after spending loving moments with him. Gu Jun-pyo is heartbroken and meets with a car accident while trying to save Yoon Ji-hoo life that causes him to lose his memory of Geum Jan-di. Encouraged by her mother to pursue her heart, Geum Jan-di returns but is saddened that Gu Jun-pyo cannot recall who she is. After asking him to try to remember her name, she jumps in a pool as he watches, causing him to be flooded by memories of them saving each other from drowning. He calls out her name and rescues her and they unite once again. Although he asks her to marry him, they decide it is best to pursue their individual dreams first. Gu Jun-pyo leaves for America, where he furthers the Shinhwa group and becomes a successful businessman. Four years later, it is shown that Geum Jan-di and Yoon Ji-hoo have graduated medical school, while So Yi-jung is a successful architect and returns from Sweden for Chu Ga-eul, who has become a teacher. Gu Jun-pyo arrives in a helicopter and proposes to Geum Jan-di at the beach side; the rest of the F4 arrive at the same time and they all walk alongside the beach, smiling happily.
