Destined for Dominion is a book dealing with the authority of every believer over the forces of darkness. The promise of the author, A.L. Gill, is that you will learn how to stop losing and start winning every struggle of life.

Now you are in Christ, you are the righteousness of God but if you do not believe and receive that by faith then you will continue to allow the Devil to make you believe that you are as you behave. Your behaviour should not determine your identity but your identity should determine your behaviour. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth. Things in our life will begin to change just by literally realising who we are in Christ. When the challenges of life come and the house is built on sand self-effort and performance then this house will, of course, be torn apart and swept away in the storms of life. Rest assured, if you are completely placing your trust in Jesus and His righteousness, you will NEVER be swept away from your rock by any storm of life! Grace and Peace be multiplied to you beloved, in Jesus name. Posted on The Foundation of Righteousness Pt. God does not get any glory out of self-righteousness because it is something you did. God will get the glory out of His kind of righteousness because it is something that He did for you. Say this faith statement out loud with me: The day you got born again and made Jesus The Lord of your life, you got in Christ and righteousness was extended to you as a gift. If you are righteous which you are can you lose this righteousness which was given to you as a gift from God? The answer is absolutely not!! Why can this never be taken away? As long as you are in Christ, you are righteous because Jesus Himself is Righteousness, therefore, if you are in Christ then you are IN Righteousness and you have the Person of Righteousness in all His fullness. Once you got inside Christ, you were sealed with The Holy Spirit of promise who also dwells on the inside of you. We can not allow our behaviour to determine our identity but we need to allow our identity to change our behaviour. Salvation itself and its maintenance has nothing to do with behaviour because it is a finished work which is in effect forever. But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God; Hebrews Thank you for coming back for part 3 of this series, be sure to share with your friends and family and subscribe below to my email list for any updates, news and much more so I can keep you up to date. But the person who gets ahold of this foundation, all kinds of wonderful blessings will begin to manifest in their life by simply coming to terms and renewing their mind to their position IN Christ Jesus. You have a choice and God has made you a free moral agent. Remember this verse below in The Bible? I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: You have to choose life over death, you have to chose the blessing over the curse. You have to make the choice laid out before you. You, me and everybody else has to make this decision which determines the course and quality of our lives. Grace Jesus has made everything available for us and to us but we still need to make the decision. This is what our faith is for, faith is a positive response to what Jesus has already done for us. I will be the first to admit that there is no way I could ever out-perform what Jesus has done or add anything to His perfect and complete work at the cross. My friend, remember this, joy and insecurity cannot co-exist. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: Therefore, as it is written: Praise our Heavenly Father for the best gift anyone could ever receive " Jesus!!! In just 4 characteristics of our Lord Jesus, He is the answer to your every need and circumstance that you could ever face! If you are IN Christ then so are all of your circumstances; that means that all of your circumstances are subject to an outcome produced by Wisdom, An outcome that can only be produced by Righteousness, An outcome that can only be produced by Holiness, And an outcome that can only be produced by Sanctification. As we kick off this series, I would like us to meditate and get a revelation of this foundational truth that we have any and all of these things Wisdom, Righteousness, Holiness and Sanctification because of our position, and our position is in Christ. Out of this belief will flow everything we are waiting to see manifested in our lives. We cannot possibly live in true hope until we really know and believe that we are praying, meditating, confessing the word in our position as the righteousness of God, IN CHRIST. Posted on Righteousness Without Works Pt. According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen Hebrews Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: In Jude 11, we are warned not to go after the same error of Balaam. What is the error of Balaam? It is thinking that God will curse those who He has blessed. When Israel would offer up sacrifices of burnt offerings, it was only a picture of Jesus on the cross. It was a shadow of the eternal sacrifice of The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world John 1: If someone was to send an evil spirit against a Christian then once that spirit gets there then the spirit will turn back on the one that sent it because part of our covenant with God under grace is divine protection by the blood of Jesus. There is no divination against Jacob, no evil omens against Israel. Let it be known that in Christ; no man, no demon and no Devil can curse you, who God Himself has marked as blessed. Your sure foundation of this promise is from the Holy Word of God which caused you to put your faith in Jesus and become saved to begin with and this Word is eternal, alive and sharper than any two-edged sword!! I would love for you to meditate on key points I have made throughout this series and write down all the scriptures that speak into your current situation and begin to use your faith as a positive response to these precious promises from God to you as you begin to see more and more manifestation in your life. Thank you so much for sticking with me throughout this series, I really do hope and pray that it has blessed you as much as it has me being able to write this awesome news from God our Loving Heavenly Father!

Destined for Dominion is a book dealing with the authority of every believer over the forces of darkness. The promise of the author From The Community.

He destined you to rule. Have you noticed that more and more people today are searching for meaning and purpose in life? This trend provides abundant opportunities for Christians to reach out with the supernatural power of God to influence their culture. However, the battle against darkness is not diminishing. We are entering what the Bible calls the fullness of time, and much is at stake. God is positioning us to advance His kingdom into every realm held captive by the enemy. To be successful, we must understand our authority in Christ—what some call "kingdom authority" or "dominion rule. Click here to subscribe to our newsletter. Dominion rule has become a regular confession among many believers. However, if all we do is confess, this goal will not be realized. Authority does not come through confession. Authority is uncompromisingly tied to responsibility. And it is only one facet of walking in dominion. You see, God has called us to be His kingdom representatives on earth, to establish a righteous paradigm. We need more than authority to do that. When we identify the areas over which He has given us influence and commit to being agents of change in them, everything we need to transform the culture and cause the lost to be drawn to Him is made available to us—favor, creativity, power, wisdom and so on. Taking dominion therefore requires more than simply wielding authority in the name of Jesus. It requires knowledge and the understanding and rightful use of our position in Christ. So God created man in His own image, in the image and likeness of God He created him; male and female He created them. Our Father is always about the business of His kingdom, and He created man with the same calling and design. It was a natural outcome that man be given the responsibility to manage creation, including the earth and all living creatures. Kabas, the Hebrew word for "subdue," means "to bring into subjection, to dominate. Man would have to bring creation into order by exerting his strength. It means "to manage or reign from a position of sovereignty. Adam was to live and move in a kingly manner over the earth as a son of God along with the incredible privileges and weighty responsibilities of this position. Dominion was his birthright and pleasure. Thankfully, God made a way for us to regain our kingdom authority. He did not forget His covenant plan. After Adam and Eve sinned, He sent Jesus, the second Adam, to save man from his lost condition and provide a better covenant see Heb. His teachings and parables explained the truths of this kingdom and how to secure an inheritance in it. Fully God and fully man, He moved in kingdom authority. Jesus came to establish His rule and the government of God by warring against and defeating Satan and his stronghold of sin and death. Exousia, the Greek word for "authority," means "rightful, actual and unimpeded power to act, possess, control or dispose of someone or something. He restored all that was relinquished at the fall and positioned us to partner with God in releasing His kingdom. How does this work? At salvation, we are given the profound privilege of being adopted into the family of God and becoming His sons and daughters: The Greek word for "adoption" is huiothesian, meaning "to position as an adult son. We do not have to wait to enjoy the spiritual riches we have in Christ. The Bible says, "You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ" Gal. Kleronomos, the Greek word for "heir," means "the recipient of divine promises. The Bible goes on to say, "Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ" Rom. Because we are not only heirs but also co-heirs with Christ, all that belongs to Jesus as the firstborn also belongs to us. A co-heir is a fellow receiver, a joint participant in all the Father has. We have territorial rights, too. Legal power usually involves a particular jurisdiction. Jurisdiction implies the ability to administer justice in a specific area. What is our area? God partners with us to stand against the works of evil and spread the gospel of Christ see 2 Cor. Jesus revealed the extent of our authority when He told the apostle Peter: I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind declare to be improper and unlawful on earth must be what is already bound in heaven; and whatever you loose declare lawful on earth must be what is already loosed in heaven" Matt. The word "kingdom" in this passage refers to royal power and dominion involving the license or authority to rule. Jesus placed the keys of the kingdom in the hands of the church. We not only have access to them but also have the right to use them. In the Bible and in Jewish teaching the handing over of keys implies promotion to full authority. But what is our actual appointment? Jesus stated that He would give us the authority to bind and loose. The idea of binding and loosing was a concept commonly used by rabbis to signify the judicial authority to forbid or permit. When executed in partnership with and obedience to the Lord, we have the authority to direct justice in cases held in the heavenly court of law. Though we do not have the right to tell God what to do, we do have the legal right, authority and power to forbid what the Lord tells us to forbid and to release and welcome what He has designed for us to set free. Therefore, we have permission to forbid on earth what is already found guilty and forbidden in heaven, and we have the right to allow on earth what is found right and permitted in heaven. Knowing this, the enemy and the powers of darknessâ€”instead of attacking usâ€”should be trembling in fear, thinking: What are they going to do to bring us harm today? The truth is, the Lord has already declared the final judgment against Satan and his army. The day for their sentencing to eternal imprisonment in the abyss has not yet come, but their defeat was secured at the cross. They no longer possess keys of authority. Jesus restored the kingdom of God in our personal lives and in creation. As Jesus, the keeper of the keys, gives direction through the Holy Spirit on a daily or moment-by-moment basis, we have the legal authority to execute His plansâ€”provided we are walking in humility, holiness and obedience. When our kingdom plans are in concert with His and our character lines up with His, the authority to effect change is realized. However, if we plan our own agendas, hoping God will bless them, there will be no lasting fruit, effect or change. It is not our job to direct Jesus. We look to Him to give us His throne room blueprints. As we submit and build His kingdom agenda, we will be effective. Change, transformation and revival will come. In the vision, I saw a football game. One team wore black uniforms, the other white. At the start of play, the white team had possession of the ball but fumbled. The black team recovered it and began to run successful plays, forcing the white team to remain in defensive mode, trying to push the black team back to prevent their victory. Suddenly, a new white team member came onto the field. He intercepted the ball and ran a successful play. Then he left the field. But his teammates seemed unaware that the ball had changed hands and that they had legal possession of it. Expecting to be on defense, the white team focused only on defending its territory, allowing the black team to run offense. Suddenly, the white team realized the ball was rightfully theirs. The other team had possession only because the white team had voluntarily handed it over. They decided that enough was enough. On the next play they intercepted the ball. The player with the ball ran swiftly to the end zone, unable to be stopped. Ultimately, the white team left the black team in the dust to win the game. Mankind is like the white team. We had the ball at the beginning of time, but Adam and Eve fumbled it, and the enemy picked it up. Later in the game, Jesus intercepted it and returned possession of it to us. For too long we have been playing defense instead of running offense. The enemy still has illegal possession of the ball because we allow it. It is time for us to stop asking ourselves, "What do I have to defend myself from today? We cannot allow the enemy to continue to steal the purpose for which we were createdâ€”to exert influence, rule, authority and stewardship on the earth. Souls are awaiting salvation. Now is the season to run with determination the race set before us, as the writer of Hebrews encourages us to do see Heb. We are destined to rule in life with the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. And all creation will see.
