

Chapter 1 : National Park Service Teaching with Museum Collections Lesson Plans: Hampton National His

*Miss Maggie: A Biography of Maggie Lena Walker [Muriel Branch, Dorothy Rice] on racedaydvl.com *FREE* shipping on qualifying offers.*

Walker, became the first woman of any race to found and become president of an American bank. No other African-American earned a Ph. Favorites CollectCollect this now for later kelli Bessie Coleman, the daughter of a poor, southern, African American family, became one of the most famous women and African Americans in aviation history. Coleman became a role model for women and African Americans. CollectCollect this now for later samanthasam Jean-Baptiste Belley ca. Thelma was the first woman to integrate a beauty contest in America and became the first African American Miss Subways in April, The sisters were civil rights pioneers but their stories were largely unknown until their book "Having Our Say: Bessie died at , Sarah died at Shirley Ann Jackson, Favorites CollectCollect this now for later sally Daisy Bates â€” civil rights activist, publisher, journalist. Eisenhower ordered federal troops to go to Little Rock to uphold the law and protect the Little Rock Nine. Zagunis, the daughter of two former U. Fechten CollectCollect this now for later smurfet Marion Anderson, who in was refused permission to perform at Constitution Hall by the Daughter of the American Revolution, went on to become the first African American leading artist at the Met in Anderson was an example to Leontyne Price and Jessye Norman, for whom she obviously opened doors. An invitation to the White House is a part of that event. The story of Michael Oher, a homeless and traumatized boy who became an All American football player and first round NFL draft pick with the help of a caring woman and her family. Favorites CollectCollect this now for later luann Roland Hayes, the brilliant tenor who became the first African-American man to earn international fame as a concert vocalist, photographed by Addison Scurlock in Spot was born in the White House on March 17, and is the only second-generation presidential pet in history. Qiu Jin boldly challenged traditional gender roles and demanded equal rights and opportunities for women. She was the first woman to lead an armed uprising against the corrupt Qing Dynasty, for which she was arrested and executed. In , when she was around 60 years old, Fields became the second woman and first African American carrier for the US Postal Service. Diana Fletcher was the daughter of an African slave who ran away to seek freedom in Florida , and a Seminole woman. Once in Oklahoma, she was adopted and raised by a Kiowa family. Johnson â€” was a talented artist who became famous for his Scandinavian landscape paintings and "primitive" scenes of black life. In , he was passed over for a traveling scholarship because of his race. She went through multiple criminal trials and was eventually sentenced to life in prison in Photos CollectCollect this now for later jeanne Born on February 21, , in Houston, Texas, Barbara Jordan was a lawyer and educator who was a congresswoman from to â€”the first African American congresswoman to come from the Deep South and the first woman ever elected to the Texas Senate She captured the attention of President Lyndon Johnson, who invited her to the White House for a preview of his civil rights message. President, she would follow in the tradition of Barack Obama as the first African-American President in breaking through glass ceilings to attain the top spot. If she wants to be President and can make it through the Democratic convention, she would most likely win. Her long-stated top priorities include gender equality, health issues, raising the minimum wage and human rights. Interesting People CollectCollect this now for later rachael First lady Michelle Obama, embraces former president George Bush, accompanied by his wife, former first lady Laura Bush, while participating in the dedication of the National Museum of African American History and Culture September 24, in Washington, DC, before the museum opens to the public later that day. She made a fortune with her sister on the New York Stock Exchange and was one of the first women to open a Wall Street brokerage firm.

Chapter 2 : Miss Colorado - Wikipedia

Maggie Lena Walker (July 15, - December 15, ) was an African-American teacher and racedaydvl.com was the first African American female bank president to charter a bank in the United States.

Julia Johnson - julia. Jeremiah and Amy Newton Hughes, was born Dec. When two months of age he came with his parents to Taylor County, which had been home to him from then on, with the exception of short periods of time when the family lived in nearby towns where his father was pastor. He was married to Miss Maggie Short in March of To them two children were born, Mrs. Bessie Reynolds, deceased, and Jay S. Hughes of Los Angeles. His wife died in April On February 24, , he was married to Mrs. To them two children were born, Doris and Dale. His kind and fatherly care was also exerted over his two stepdaughters, Mrs. Jessie Denton now deceased and Mrs. Inez Delles, to whom he endeared himself as to his own children. By his devotion and kindness to his loved ones and his neighborly and friendly disposition, he has endeared himself to a large circle of friends and neighbors. His industry as a farmer and his fidelity to the principles of honesty gained for him the respect and admiration of all who knew him. In early life he became a member of the Methodist church and through life his faith in the Lord has been his ideal, strength and comfort. Until 6 years ago, Mr. Hughes continued his farming operations and then, because of failing health, he moved to Bedford. He died at his home in Bedford February 8, , at the age of 80 years, 1 month and 25 days. He is survived by his wife, his children, Jay S. Hughes of Los Angeles, Mrs. Inez Delles of Hastings, Nebr. Eva McGee of Fargo, Okla. Burial was in the Conway cemetery. Taylor, had published a newspaper in Warren, Ohio and Fairfield. Jim attended school in Fairfield and was graduated from the Fairfield High School in He was graduated from Parsons College, Fairfield, Ia. He studied several summers at the University of Iowa at Iowa City. He played both basketball and football during his school career, winning several letters. The editor started a school teaching career at Coin, Iowa in , going from there to Audubon in While teaching at Audubon, he was united in marriage to a fellow teacher, Marjorie Long, in , and they established their home in Audubon. In he was inducted into the U. After the war the Taylors established their home in Bedford, where he soon entered the Bedford School system, and served as the principal of the Bedford High School. During his teaching career he specialized in coaching dramatics, speech and journalism, literature being his major the writings of Benjamin Franklin being one of his favorite teaching courses. The past summer he enjoyed attending numerous class reunions of his former students and was deeply concerned, and interested, to see them continue in learning and succeed in life. For several summers he assisted the then publisher of the Times-Press, A. Hamblin, "put-out-the-paper," while "Ham" traveled. Fishing had been one of his favorites. Deeply aware of the community needs he had taken part in as many civic projects as he could, having helped on the planning Board of the Towns and Country Medical Center, the Bedford Development Club Board, charter member of Lions Club, the United Methodist Church, the V. Survivors include his wife, Marjorie; one brother, Ben J. Gertrude Taylor Whitted, of Fairfield. Butts died November 11, , at Clarinda Municipal Hospital. Interment was at Fairview Cemetery, Bedford. He lived in Ross Township, Taylor County, and grew to maturity in the same community where he attended the public school and the Methodist Church. No children were born to this union. He chose farming as his vocation and upon retirement enjoyed gardening at his home in Bedford. He was formerly a member of the Maple Grove Methodist church, where he was a faithful member for over 50 years, serving in official duties, both in the Church and the Sunday school. He became a member of the first Baptist Church of Bedford in January where he has been active with the Senior Citizens group and has served on the Board of Deacons. He was a kind and considerate husband and friend and will be missed by all who knew and loved him. James Stiles and Rev. Thummel died December 17, , as a result of an automobile accident near Henderson, Ia. Thummel was northbound on Highway 58 about 3: Friday when his car was struck by an eastbound car on driven by Linda K. Nelson of Maryville, Mo. Nelson was not injured. Their son, Keane, is of Minneapolis, Minn. He had two grandchildren. The couple moved to Harlan from Clarinda to manage a nursing home, later transferring to similar work at West Branch and Council Bluffs. He was currently nutritional director at Iowa Western College and in charge of meal sites throughout southwest Iowa. He and his secretary had been in Elliot prior to the accident to discuss opening of a new meal site there. Memorial services were held at 3 p. James Stiles of St. Final services were held at 2 p. Dwayne Madsen of Bedford Methodist Church. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Bedford. Duane Thummel was born in Taylor County, Ia. He was the third son of Frank C. He grew to manhood in Taylor County. Early in life he became a Christian and continuously thereafter was a faithful member of the Methodist Church wherever he resided. On the farm which had been homesteaded by his grandfather, Walker Butts. In he moved to Clarinda, Ia. School and became a Licensed Practical Nurse. In he received his B. He loved all people, but had a most special spot in his heart for the elderly and the infirmed. One son, Keane Franklin, was born to them. He is survived by his wife, Irma, their son, Keane; two grandchildren, Marcy Lynn and Nicholas Keane Thummel; a brother, Glenn Thummel; two nephews; three nieces; his mother-in-law, Janette Shell; cousins; and many friends. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Olin Thummel. Duane loved life and believed life was too short to spend in one place doing the same thing. He enjoyed every job he had and cherished the many friendships made in the various places he had lived. Faith in God, music, optimism, kindness and love helped him to live each day to the very fullest.

Chapter 3 : Maggie L. Walker - Wikipedia

We've always had big block parties for Miss Maggie, and this one is going to be the grandest," said Mickens. The statue unveiling is Saturday, July 15, at 10 a.m., which is also Mrs. Walker's.

On the morning of the 4th inst. Rogers Arrington - Anderson DR. On the 25th of May, near Centreville, Hickman county, Tenn. Nashville union and American. Gray, of Williamsport Maury County. The ceremony was performed at the Methodist Church, in the presence of a large assembly of the youth and beauty of our village and vicinity, by the Rev. Turner, "with all the modern improvements" which was a real novelty to our matte-of fact people. The attendants were as follows: Clagett, of Centreville, and Mr. Six of as fair and elegant ladies, accompanied by an equal number of gallant, noble and chivalrous young men as ever before attended a happy bride and groom on a similar occasion. After partaking of the repast, "The golden hours on angels wings flew," until the sun with all his majesty was smilingly looking upon them, giving the first notice that they had lost the opportunity for a nights repose. Altogether it was the most recherche affair that ever transpired in Centreville, and will long be remembered. Morrison to Miss Annie P. Harper -- all of Hickman county, Tenn. Rogers McClanahan - Thompson Jan. McClanahan to Miss Malinda C. Thompson -- -- all of Hickman county, Tenn. Frank Lampley and Miss Marinda Tidwell. Joseph Castleman with Miss Clara Dunnigan. David Pate and Miss Nancie Pewitt. William Tarrant and Miss Bettie Smith, both of this county. William Dodson and Miss Mary Wisdom. Miller and Miss Sack Puckett. Hutchinson and Miss Nancie McGee. Dodson and Miss Rena Cotham. James Campbell, in this county, Dec. Silas Kinkade and Miss Mary Matthews. Barnhill and Miss Mary Bass. Briggs with Miss Nona Warren. John Chessor and Miss Mary Malugen. Dick Harris and Miss Winnie Black. Grigsby, in this place Dec 28, by Captain T. Easley and Miss Sallie Whitson. Ward with Miss Docia Grigsby. Moran and Miss M. McFarland and Miss Cidnie M. Thomas Litton and Miss Eliza Toy. Nesbett and Miss Cornelia H. Davis and Miss Mary E. John Harper and Miss Martha C. Jonathan Duncan and Mrs. Allen and Miss Cassie Springer. About dark the groomsman and companions left Mr. She was, at the time, in the dining room, and without a word, rushed out and mounted a horse and the whole party started at lightening speed for the designated place. The old folk by this time, had taken in the situation, and Mr. Springer, her father, started in hot pursuit. The young folk arrived at Mr. They waited out in the snow for several hours until the fond parent took his departure, when the young folk returned to Mr. We congratulate this happy couple on their determination and success. May it ever be thus. Grimmitt and Sarah J. Anderson and Parthena Runions Andrew J. Anglin and Eugenie A. Bassham and Mary Hooton Milliard F. Totty and Sarah E. Goodman and Miss Martha Skelton. Watkins and a Miss Dodson, a daughter of Esquire Bill. Puckett and Miss Belle Hoover. Linch with Miss Angeline Harber. Linch - Ammon Also at the same time and place, Mr. Thomas Linch and Miss Cassie Ammon. Hinson with Miss Sissie Skelton. Long may they live and happy be. Woods and Miss R. John and William Hassell, brothers to the bride, O. Carothers and wife; only friends and relatives being present, no invitations being issued. My their lives be long and prosperous as they are happy today. Woods and Ruth E. Russell and Mary Killough James C. Carothers and Mary C. Worley and Laura B. Linch and Mary A. Russell and Miss Mary Kellough. Tidwell and Rachel Williams Wm. Your correspondent said Jim was love-sick, but I guess he is well now. Handlin was called in and solemnized the rites of matrimony between Mr. Porter and Miss Mary E. Shouse with Miss N. Easley solemnized the rites of matrimony between Robert Bailey and Ella Charter, colored, near town. May they enjoy all they anticipated in married life. Harry Holystone and Miss Vannie Shouse. Billie Cooper with Miss Maggie Shipp. Tidwell and Rachel Williams John R. Rainey and Mary Martin Colored: Dunnagan, a few days ago, Mr. John Rice and Miss Maggie Yates. This was a runaway match. Rice had made an attempt to steal his girl a few nights previous, but was prevented by her father. But one day Mr. Yates went from home, and Mr. The bride and groom have our best wishes. Hart, of Virginia, and Miss Fannie Anderson. We extend our hearty congratulations to the happy couple, also many thanks for a piece of the bridal cake. Lovel, of this county, and Miss Minnie Slaytor, of Dickson county, were married. An elegant supper was given by the father of the bride, and a dinner the next day by the groom. Another wedding or two is spoken of as likely to occur soon. John Hungerford and Miss Priscilla Fowlkes were united in matrimony. Gee and Miss Minerva J. Lackey, of Clifton, Mr.

Chapter 4 : Hickman County Newspaper - Wedding Announcements - 's

A young "Miss Maggie" Walker, the daughter of a former slave, who in became the first woman of any race to found and become president of an American bank.

Her father was a butler and writer. Young Maggie attended the newly formed Richmond Public Schools and helped her mother by delivering the clean clothes. Teacher, mother, leader[ edit ] She taught grade school for three years until , when she married Armstead Walker Jr. Her husband earned a good living, and she was able to leave teaching to take care of her family and her work with the Independent Order of St. Maggie and Armstead Walker Jr. When she was fourteen years old, young Maggie joined the local council of the Independent Order of St. This fraternal burial society, established in in Baltimore, Maryland , administered to the sick and aged, promoted humanitarian causes and encouraged individual self-help and integrity. She served in numerous capacities of increasing responsibility for the Order, from that of a delegate to the biannual convention to the top leadership position of Right Worthy Grand Secretary in , a position she held until her death. Businesswoman, banker[ edit ] In , she published a newspaper for the organization, "The St. Luke Penny Savings Bank. Tragedy struck in when her husband was accidentally killed, leaving Mrs. Walker to manage a large household. Her work and investments kept the family comfortably situated. Business Hall of Fame in Walker High School was one of two schools in the area for black students, during the period of racial segregation in schools; the other was Armstrong High School. After generations of students spent their high-school years there, it was totally refurbished to reopen in as the regional Maggie L. Luke Building held the offices of the Independent Order of St. Luke, and the office of Maggie L. Walker Historic Site at her former Jackson Ward home. In the house was designated a National Historic Site and was opened as a museum in The site states that it "commemorates the life of a progressive and talented African-American woman. She achieved success in the world of business and finance as the first black woman in the United States to charter and serve as president of a bank, despite the many adversities. The site includes a visitor center detailing her life and the Jackson Ward community in which she lived and worked and her residence of thirty years. Reconstruction and the New South". Edited by Barrosse, Emily. A Right Worthy Grand Mission: Howard University, , p. A Right Worthy Grand Mission, , pp. A Right Worthy Grand Mission, , p. Virginia Department of Historic Resources.

Chapter 5 : Maggie's Games - Maggie's Earth Adventures

Miss Kelly and I have worked hard to create an environment that your child can feel safe and open to learn in. Our room is divided into centers, which are designed to target a variety of skills significant to your child's development.

Alabama Marriage News County-specific records are located on our county websites, so check there first. National Intelligencer, as pub. Torp - ] "This city" refers to Washington D. Montgomery Advertiser - May 12, ,Transcribed and Contributed by: Data Ratley In Greenville, M. Ballard and Miss Pearl Merrwether, both of Ft. Kimbrough In Cullman, Richard M. Cox and Miss Pearl E. Woodham and Miss E. Jones In Jackson County, S. Daniels of Mississippi, and Miss Sallie S. Cross and Miss Nellie G. Dutton and Miss Sallie C. Purifoy and Miss Daisy W. Brown In Madison County, T. Taylor and Miss Mary I. Corzeline and Miss Therasa C. Clair County, Wallace J. Moorer and Miss Lillie J. Bryan In Syilacauga, W. Montgomery Advertiser, July 7, , Transcribed by C. Byrne and Miss Julia B. In Blount County, W. Kelley and Miss S. In Union Springs, J. Gholson and Miss Ione H. Bender and Miss Lizzie Simpson. In Calhoun County, W. Yeatman and Miss Vesta Welch. McCarty and Miss Sarah Stillwell. Philpot of Georgia and Mrs. In Coffee County, J. Stephenson and Miss Laura Falkner; L. Allen and Miss Estelle Moseley. In Atmore, Joseph B. Shotz and Miss Bernadine Thersen, both of Pensacola. Still and Miss Emma Terry. Gresham and Miss Martha A. In Jackson County, W. Gold and Miss Frances Johnson. Thomason and Miss Myrtle Heathcote. Mitchell and Miss Zulla Smith. In Lee County, C. In Opelika, Sidney L. Adams and Miss N. In Montgomery, Captain E. Temple and Miss Ada V. In Pickens County, R. Burgin and Miss Lizzie Lancaster. In Russell County, Captain J. Marchand and Miss Princie Gentry. In Girard, William Sanders and Mrs. Bolton and Miss Blance Whetchell. In Jasper, Edward W. Barrow of Connecticut and Miss Maggie L. Transcribed and submitted by Marla Snow. Key on July 17, in Vineville Alex. Whitten of Lee co, AL by Rev. Lockhart on July 24, Rev. Wilson on August 22 Thomas Sneed to Mrs. Anthony to Miss Arcadia Davis by Rev. Harden to Miss Mollie S. Oliver of Enon to Miss Minnie E. Ott of Eufaula, AL by Rev. Shapard on December 17 Rev. Shapard on December 31 B. Barksdale to Miss E. Oliver to Miss M. Leak to Miss H. Wright on January 9, Dr. Rush on the 13th ult. Thomas of Tallapoosa co, AL by Re. Slaton on March 1, Col. Herring of LA to Miss L. Randle of Chunnenugee by Rev. Threadgill, daughter of Wm. Johnson of Pike co, AL by Rev. Shores on April 26 Jas. Flowers of Butler co. Rutledge of Crenshaw co, AL by Rev. Hunter on June 9 at the house of D. Winn to Miss Mary V. Shores on August 23 D. Graham of Bullock co, AL by Rev. Wild on November 17 Robt. Hester of Chambers co, AL by Rev. Sims on December 29 in Union Church C. Campbell of same by Rev. Ross on November 29 W. Ross on December 23, Rev. Lewis of Pike co, AL by Rev. Shores on December 16, Wm. Sampey on December 31, Angus M. Score of Alabama to Miss Sue A. Stovall of Stewart co. Weaver on January 19 W. Shores on February 16 Rev. Bedell of Auburn, AL by Rev. Woods of Tallapoosa co, AL by Rev.

Chapter 6 : Family members prepare for unveiling of the Maggie Walker statue

Geospy - Maggie's Earth Adventures.

Thompson Mrs David L. Modern Presbyterianism is considered by many to be a rebirth of the early church of the New Testament. Be criticized the pretentious authority of the Pope and called for direct authority from God. In , John Calvin, called the father of Presbyterianism, converted to Protestantism. He interpreted the Bible as the revelation of God, emphasizing theology, worship, education, thrift, ethical behavior and representative govern-Rent for his followers. In England the "Westminster Assembly" of Presbyterians worked steadily between and to write the doctrinal guides which Presbyterianism was recognize as basic texts. One of the primary causes of the settling of America in the 17th and 18th centuries was religious freedom. Presbyterians from Europe settled in America in such large numbers that some British called the American Revolution the "Presbyterian Revolt". At least 14 signers of the Declaration of Independence were Presbyterians. In the first presbytery in America was established in Philadelphia. During the mid s the church divided over issues of Evangelism and slavery. Austin brought American families to settle the land. Although these pioneers were required to claim they would be Catholic, most were not and few followed this religious rule. When statehood for Texas followed in the question of religious freedom was not an issue, it had already been gained ten years earlier. On February 14, Reverend R. He had been preaching for about a year previous at Bagdad. Heinatz, Thomas Huddleston, Col. Mason, Martin Jones Wells, Charles. Babcock, Henderson Upchurch, and William N. Carothers, most of whom had first settled In Austin, Travis County, prior to roving to this area on the western side of Williamson County. The vote for this name was unanimous. The name was selected because the church members had originally belonged to the Pleasant Hill or Ebenezer Presbyterian Churches of North and South Carolina. Currently they were transferring membership from the First Presbyterian Church in Austin or Georgetown. The first sermon on the day of organization was from Matthew 9th Chapter 29th verse, "According to your faith be it unto you", and the following persons responded to the proposition to organize a church by presenting their certificates of membership in other churches: Carothers was elected Ruling Elder on February 14, , the day the church was established, and he was installed at the next meeting, which was the following day. He had been ordained same years before in South Carolina. The first communion service of this church and the first in the area was held the next day Sabbath following this organization. According to the minutes of the "Session Book " on April 3rd, Mrs. Walker was received into membership. Walker who would later 37 years later donate the land for the church when it moved to Leander. On April 17, the following entry is found in the session record, "Session received Hester, servant girl of Samuel D. Carothers on examination -being a member of the Methodist Church in South Carolina for same years and baptized by that denomination, was received to the communion of this church. McKown was received by certificate in , and in Mrs. Langdon Taylor was received on certificate from the Austin church in All of these early meetings had been held in Bagdad and in July of the session met at the schoolhouse in Liberty Hill. Roddy, Miss Ellen Roddy, J. Park and Miss Mary E. Rebecca Park were received as members. Turk joined the church. Smith was received into membership on April 2, On July 7, J. At the session on October 5, Dr. Anderson was received on Certificate from the Cumberland Church. Turk was elected as a delegate to the Presbytery. Three days later, another session received William H. Denny and Eliza C. The next month Mrs. Edward Allen "presented a certificate of dismissal from the Baptist Church and desiring to join this church was received". Allen, wife of Wilford Allen and Mrs. Spencer, wife of William Spencer joined. Walker joined the church. Again in Liberty Hill in October , Mr. Park was appointed to attend the Presbytery meeting in Waxahachie and the Synod meeting in Dallas. Robert Clark Walker joined the church in December In a report on April 1st, the following funds were collected from April 1, to April 1,

Chapter 7 : Taylor County, Iowa: obituaries Hughes

A young "Miss Maggie" Walker, the daughter of a former slave, who in became the first woman of any race to found and become president of an American bank. She also founded a newspaper and a department store called "Saint Luke's."

Student Learning Objectives Identify some of the key figures in the struggle against Jim Crow segregation. Understand how individual actions can affect the course of history and how personal actions are constrained by larger social or historical conditions. Understand individual and institutional influences on the civil rights movement. Understand how ideas are exchanged and social relationships are cultivated when people share food and dine together. Background and Historical Context Introduction In spite of humble beginnings in post-Civil War Richmond, Virginia, Maggie Lena Walker achieved national prominence as a businesswoman and community leader. Her business acumen, personality, and lifelong commitment to a beneficial burial society fueled her climb to success. She was one of the first women, and the first African American woman, in the United States to found a bank. As a leader, her successes and vision offered tangible improvements in the way of life for African Americans and women. This fraternal burial society, established in in Baltimore, Maryland, administered to the sick and aged, promoted humanitarian causes and encouraged individual self-help and integrity. Walker served in numerous capacities of increasing responsibility for the Order, from that of a delegate to the biannual convention to the top leadership position of Right Worthy Grand Secretary in , a position she held until her death. Through sound fiscal policies, a genius for public relations and enormous energy, she took a dying organization, gave it life and helped it thrive. Walker established a newspaper, The St. Luke Herald, to promote closer communication between the Order and the public. Walker had reasoned, "Let us put our money together; let us use our money; Let us put our money out at usury among ourselves, and reap the benefit ourselves. Luke Penny Savings Bank. Later she agreed to serve as chair of the board of directors when the bank merged with two other Richmond banks to become The Consolidated Bank and Trust Company. In addition to her work for the Independent Order of St. Luke, Maggie Walker was active in civic groups. She also served as a member of the Virginia Interracial Commission. Later Maggie, her mother and her stepfather, William Mitchell, moved to their own home in an alley between Broad and Marshall Streets where Maggie and her brother Johnnie were raised. After graduation, she taught grade school for three years. Her teaching career ended in when she married Armstead Walker Jr. She then directed her energies toward caring for her family and strengthening the Independent Order of St. Life was full and prosperous for the Walkers and their sons, Russell and Melvin. Tragedy struck in when her husband was accidentally killed, leaving Mrs. Walker to manage a large household. Her work and investments kept the family comfortably situated. A major addition to the house in enabled Mrs. Walker to provide a home for her sons and their families, her mother, and the household staff. Luke, until her death on December 15, Walker purchased the house in and soon began making changes. Central heating and electricity were added, and with the addition of several bedrooms and enclosed porches, the home increased over the years from 9 to 28 rooms. In an elevator was added in the rear of the house to provide Mrs. Walker access to the second floor. The Walker family owned the home until , when it became a National Park Service site. The furnishings throughout the home are original family pieces. They are valuable in understanding the period of her occupancy. Together the house and the furnishings help us to learn more about Maggie Walker and the world in which she lived. Constitution and certain Congressional acts, esp. Teacher Tips Prior to this lesson provide students background information on the Great Depression and early movements for civil rights. Consult with home economics teachers and librarians on appropriate dining etiquette and table settings. Lesson Implementation Procedures Lesson One: How to Read an Object Download images of fruit peeler, calling card, and nuptials news release from Section C, Lesson 1. Students analyze images and discuss. Distribute similar items to students. Living in the Time of Maggie L. Walker Download images of museum objects in the park collections, and obtain similar items and materials listed in Section C, Lesson Two. Walker knew many great African American figures, including W. B DuBois, Booker T. Explain to the students that Maggie L. Walker kept many pictures, posters and photographs of her African American contemporaries on the wall of her library. Look at the Prominent Colored People poster and have the students try to identify how many figures they recognize. Assign students to a specific historic figure or have groups select an historic figure to research, including Maggie Walker. Students work cooperatively to answer questions below. The Maggie group answers questions in the first person. For what reason s is this person best remembered in U. Why might Maggie Walker be interested in fostering a relationship with this person? During what period in American history is this person most likely to have known Mrs. What style of clothing did this person wear during the time they were associated with Maggie L. What position would this person take on these topics? What would their views be today on the same topics? Students may use magazines or download pictures from websites to obtain photos. Each group will include one student portraying Maggie L. Each group of students will take turns reenacting a portion of the dinner party. The student portraying Maggie L. Each group should be given minutes to role play before assembling the next group. For example, if Group 1 is "at the table," the other Maggie L. B DuBoises evaluate the person currently playing that role at the table. Students assess their like character actors on period dress, appropriate responses to questions based on evidence collected in Lesson 2, and historic accuracy of each response. Extension and Enrichment Activities Students research foodways and recipes of the period. Discuss with students how the invention of electricity and refrigeration changed the way Americans shopped, cooked and stored food in the early to mids vs. Each prepares an authentic dish similar to one found in a ss Southern cookbook such as Mrs. See Section K for more resources on cooking during the Great Depression. Have students design their own china and silver patterns or table linens. Walker or a reflective journal based on the role playing experience. Students could also write invitations to the party, or a thank you note afterwards from the point of view of their character to practice letter writing skills. Students research family traditions through oral histories taken when interviewing relatives about the origin of certain holiday meals or family recipes. Students in accelerated classes could enrich this lesson by role-playing a second dinner party using modern political figures such as Barack Obama, Hilary Clinton, Jesse Jackson, Condoleeza Rice or George W.

Chapter 8 : Mrs. Johnson - 3rd Grade

bienvenue. bienvenue.

Chapter 9 : Leander Presbyterian Church Historical Marker history - Leander, Texas

This feature is not available right now. Please try again later.