

Chapter 1 : Things To Do In San Francisco - Deals on Activities in San Francisco, CA | Groupon

Book your tickets online for the top things to do in San Francisco, California on TripAdvisor: See , traveler reviews and photos of San Francisco tourist attractions.

Play tourist for a day and ride the carousel at Pier 39. This list for little train lovers gives you the inside scoop of where to ride the rails around the Bay Area. Plan a picnic day at these spots with million dollar views and grass for the kids to run, run, run! Get your STEM fix at these museums where science is all around you. Find out all the best spots there and in nearby Carmel and Pacific Grove when your road trip down south. Take a break from the library and go to story time at the botanical garden, bookstore or museum nearby. How are Jelly Beans made? Learn about where all your favorite treats come from at these local food factory tours. Book your next birthday at these favorite birthday locations and leave the party planning to the experts. Bar SZ Ranch Hit the hay at these local farms where you can spend the night. Spend some time on the islands Alcatraz and Angel Island , that is. A quick ferry ride will get you there to learn all about the history of these amazing spots in San Francisco Bay. Kids Gym Berkeley These indoor playspaces are the place to be when the rain falls. Get the family dining together with these meal delivery services that make your job easy. Book a weekend at one of these glamping spots that offer campfires without having to pitch your own tent. The best things in life are free especially when you get a free day at your local museum. Speaking of free, there are loads of free things to do, right in Golden Gate Park. Take a walk on the wild side with these kids menus for adventurous eaters. Make your way to wine country and bring the kids! These wineries are all set up to welcome the whole family, tots included. These consignment shops are the place to be when your kid is growing like a weed. Meet some animals up close and personal at these 20 wildlife centers. Get in some after hours time at your favorite aquarium or museum where you can spend the night. Get your goggles on and dive in to one of these indoor pools that are open year round. San Francisco has some of the most epic playgrounds around. Start checking off our list of 30 favorites. Cast your fishing line at these local lakes and piers where dinner is waiting. Dine on dim sum. Our California Academy of Sciences guide is all you need to make the most of your visit. Take some time to smell the roses at these botanical gardens. Visit Japan without getting on a plane. Spend the afternoon exploring these bike paths and bike parks that are perfect for the tiny two-wheelers. Hop on a cable car and explore all that Market Street has to offer. Make some time to meet the lemurs at the San Francisco Zoo. Make your next meal out a memorable one in a good way! Every kids deserves a spot where they feel welcomed. These playgrounds and playspaces offer resources for special needs kids so that they can join in the fun with their peers. Sprouts Cooking Classes Kids, the dinner is on you! Plan an epic visit to Tahoe in the summer or when the mountains are covered in snow. North Lake Tahoe and nearby Reno offer even more adventure so plan to stay a while! Head to Corona Heights and check out the newly-renovated Randall Museum. Bonus, admission is free! Visit CuriOdyssey, climb the dragon-themed playground at Coyote Point and enjoy the uniquely-delicious waffles at Eggettes when you visit San Mateo. The summer months mean one thing county fair time! Check out this list of our favorite county fairs where you can see the rodeo, ride the Zipper and dine on funnel cakes. Get out and explore the local waterways the best way you can, on a kayak. Looking for a gift of memories instead of more stuff? Grab a gift at one of these independent toy stores. Mendocino Farms and their epic eats have made their way to the Bay Area and we could not be more thrilled. Bring Fido along when you dine out at one of these dog-friendly eateries. Drop the kids off at one of these spots where dinner and entertainment are included. Strap them in the strollers and hit the trails at these hiking spots that are good for the littlest hikers. Get the guppies in the water at these favorite swim lesson spots. The East Bay is loaded with awesome parks. Pick a new one and hit the slides! Settle in with a good book at one of our favorite independent bookstores. This list of LEGO resale shops is your holy grail. In the summer it is berry season and in the fall apples are king. Pick a bunch today! Lace up your skates retro-style at these local roller rinks. When Karl the Fog rolls in, warm up with a bowl of tasty soup. Find your mama tribe at the new parenting space, The Open Nest. Tiny dancers will love this list of classes just for them. Spend some time exploring these 10 California road trips. Grab your kids some free grub at these restaurants where the shorties eat free. Splash around in these amazing urban fountains. Another way to get wetâ€”head to these nearby lakes for a day on and in the water. Dress up in your finest and plan a tea party. Look to the stars and learn about the world beyond our atmosphere at these stargazing spots. These totally rad skate parks are ready for you. Chase some waterfalls and let the kids explore on these amazing waterfall hikes that are at their peak after springtime rains arrive. Every day is taco Tuesday at these spots that know how to do the taco just right. A warm summer night is the perfect time to enjoy these outdoor movie nights. Do a double good deed: Make your way south and follow our recs to get the most out of your next road trip to LA. Make some mom and dad friends at these local playgroups. Everyone knows that brunch is the best meal of the day. Make some art as a family! Say cheese in front of these cool walls that will send your family pics to the next level. Have the kids tried all of these iconic San Francisco desserts? What are you waiting for? These stroller hikes are perfect when you want to get the kids out for some fresh air. Every spring this amazing book fair comes to Berkeley. Bookworms, mark your calendars now! Make your way to Mendocino to kayak, horseback ride on the beach and explore the gorgeous coastline just north of San Francisco. Deck the kids out in some trendy styles from head to toe at Whoa Dude! Tween and teens will love the cool, casual style at Orange Bird in Hayes Valley. Got grandparents in town? Spend some time exploring these spots with them. These kid-friendly bars are perfect for dining out with friends and kids. If the days are warm and the kids want to get wet, head to one of these amazing splash parks. These local batting cages will let your tune up your swing in no time. Dining with views of the Golden Gate Bridge? This list has all the best outdoor dining spots. Stock up on sweet treats at these local candy shops. Let us help you be the rock star mom or dad we know you are!

Chapter 2 : THE 15 BEST Things to Do in San Francisco - (with Photos) - TripAdvisor

Find things to do in San Francisco - Discover tourist attractions, schedule tours, plan fun vacation sightseeing activities and book them all on Expedia. Skip to main content Welcome to {{displayDomain}}, a US site operated by Expedia, Inc., a Washington corporation.

But, you only have a weekend. So what to do? Read on for my ultimate guide to San Francisco in a weekend! Even on a sunny day, things can get chilly! Your best bet is to always carry a jacket, no matter what season. With only 6 guest rooms, this is the perfect spot for anyone looking for comfort and intimacy in their accommodation. At one point in time, it was the largest and most costly hotel in the world. It is still timelessly beautiful. Airbnb is also a great way to arrange accommodation during your visit and offers a variety of apartments and rooms for rent across the city at competitive prices. Across the bay, in Tiburon, this lovely cafe offers great seafood, brunch, and burgers, with lovely views out over the sea. Otherwise, try showing up 30 minutes before opening and you might be able to grab a seat at the bar. Menu items include fluffy benedicts, homemade jam, fresh omelets, spicy Italian sausage, five types of French toast. One of the best ways to see it is by bike, so rent a pair of wheels for a quick jaunt to Sausalito and back. The Zeitgeist is located in The Mission area of the city and features a nice outdoor area that is perfect for relaxing with a few pints. On days with good weather, expect the beer to be flowing and the garden to be packed with locals. Have your fill of fresh sandwiches and wraps at Salumeria, a tasty Italian bistro in the Mission District. Start off with an antipasto of cucumbers, pole beans, and preserved lemon—then go for the chili-caper egg salad, with Calabrian chili and kale chips. One of the best places for seafood in San Fran, this cash-only restaurant offers some of the best shrimp, oysters, and sashimi, all of which are freshly prepared. There are only around twenty seats so be ready for a long line to get in. The neighborhood is colored with vibrant tapestries and graffiti that light up the alleyways and parking lots. Guided tours are the best way to learn all about the famous inmates including Al Capone , prison breaks, and general history on the island. The night tour offers stunning sunset views of the bay and a spooky tour of the jail! Make sure to keep your eye out for the famous Bushman street performer! You can catch the boat to Alcatraz Island from the pier also! Keep a lookout for sea lions! With beautiful Chinese architecture, a wonderful atmosphere and the beautiful Chinatown Gate this is a great area to explore. From excellent meat platters to tasty pintxos, this newly opened restaurant facing onto the bay serves up savory Spanish cuisine and fabulous cocktails. Grab dinner at the authentic Italian restaurant, a staple for nearly 20 years. The ambiance is cozy, comfortable and intimate- be sure to call ahead with a reservation as it gets quite popular after five. Gracias Madre Best Vegetarian: Offering wonderful organic vegan food in a Mexican style, this restaurant is enough to convince even a carnivore that not every meal needs meat in it.

Chapter 3 : Best 58 Fun Things to Do in San Francisco - Activities & Attractions

SF Open Studios is the oldest and largest open studios program in the country, featuring an annual, month-long, city-wide art event that showcases over emerging and established San Francisco artists in their studios over four weekends in October and November.

On account of its vibrant economy and pleasant climate, San Francisco is also a popular destination for millennial transplants from other parts of the U. So why would any frugal traveler possibly want to visit San Francisco? San Francisco is worth at least one visit in a lifetime. Other cities are coming online all the time, so check the CityPASS site regularly before you plan any trip. Unlike CityPASS, which gives you as much time as you need to hit a handful of included attractions, the GO San Francisco Card challenges you to reach as many destinations as possible within a strict time-frame. GO Cards include general admission to a slew of Bay Area attractions, including many featured in this guide: GO San Francisco Cards come in several flavors: Your choice will depend on how long you spend in the city. It includes admission to 28 Bay Area attractions, though the exact count and mix is subject to change over time. You have 30 days from activation to visit each attraction. Like the Explorer Pass, Build Your Own requires no payment at the gate and remains active for 30 days. Exactly how much is up to you, but longer passes theoretically offer greater potential savings. Both have free apps available for download, plus desktop-friendly websites listing time-sensitive discounts and package deals. Countless small, independently owned businesses use social coupons to market themselves. Turn on push notifications, even if you normally shy away from that sort of thing. Push notifications are especially useful in my experience for travelers looking to save money at restaurants without settling for meals they could just as easily get in their hometowns. Look at it this way: The best views can be found in Lincoln Park, which is free to enter. Today, Alcatraz is a wildly popular tourist attraction operated by the National Park Service. Unlike most national parks, advance reservations are strongly encouraged for day visitors. Alcatraz Cruises is the official ticket vendor and ferry operator. Inquire with it about package deals and trip planning information. Be warned that Coit Tower can get extremely busy, so arrive early to take photos without bumping elbows or cluttering your shot. Its extensive collection includes more than 50, books and , photographs, not all of which are on display in the gallery, and serves as a crucial resource for historical research. Areas of focus include native cultures, Spanish colonization, the Gold Rush era, landscape art, and 19th and 20th century migration, among others. Basically, Pier 39 is a big outdoor mall jutting into San Francisco Bay, replete with overpriced souvenir shops and themed restaurants. An adjacent, undeveloped pier provides excellent views of the city and bay as well. Save a few bucks on admission when you book a combo ticket to the Dungeon and Madame Tussauds wax museum, which is just next door. Visitor center and Hyde Street Pier open daily, 9: The main attraction here is a collection of old, refurbished ships from throughout maritime history – vessels that all, at once point or another, plied the waters of San Francisco Bay. For another slice of history, venture a few blocks south to Ghirardelli Square , a shopping complex and venue hewed from an old chocolate factory – but watch out for Pier like prices. Highlights include more than a dozen bird of prey species, exotic fowl such as ostriches , big cats, bears, primates, and terrifying Komodo dragons. The property contains more than 8, plants, shrubs, and trees. For help making sense of the overwhelming variety on display, come for one of the docent-led tours at 1: San Francisco Botanical Garden is a popular gathering place for native birds as well. Birdwatchers can get a curated look at 8am on the first Sunday of every month. Tuesday through Sunday, 9: High points include extensive collections of American, African, and Oceanic art, as well as a stunning textile repository. Another perk of the affiliation is that both de Young and Legion of Honor are optional CityPASS inclusions opposite the Exploratorium, so you can hit both for half the price if your artsy side wins out over your inner science buff.

Chapter 4 : 25 Things You Probably Did Not Know About San Francisco

There are tons of amazing things to do in San Francisco, but we took on the seemingly impossible task of narrowing down the city's endless offerings to a tidy list of essentials. Get the skinny on.

Within our legendary walls are numerous activities for kids of all ages to enjoy. When ready to venture outside the hotel – the Palace is within walking distance of the best dining, shopping and attractions in San Francisco. Open daily from 6: On Fridays, join us for Freezie Fridays, poolside popsicle parties from On Saturdays evenings, take in a Dive In Movie at the pool at 8: A dynamic trio of wonderful guys who have greeted guests of the Palace for more than 30 years. They know every inch of San Francisco. They are waiting to share all the fun and exciting adventures this magical city holds. Originally established in , the Palace is an icon that has fun and fabulous stories hiding around every corner. Meet a Palace Ambassador in the lobby by the flowers. The Palace Saturday Signature Tea is a wonderful way for the family to spend precious time together while celebrating the beautiful ceremony of tea. Relax in the magnificent setting of The Garden Court and enjoy savory and sweet items perfectly paired with your favorite cup of tea. The Pied Piper is home to the famous Maxfield Parrish painting, delicious food and an array of signature beverages. Sit and visit over a root beer and watch the game. The handsome, welcoming setting of the Pied Piper makes for a great spot to enjoy some real quality time. Reservations are not available. Movie Night There is something super fun about watching a movie while staying in a hotel. Now enjoying a movie in the comfort of your Palace guest room just got even better! Our Chef Concierge, Jose Lopez, will provide travel tips, hospitality etiquette and the ins and outs of being a savvy traveler at any age! Meet Jose by the flowers in the lobby.

Chapter 5 : Fun and unusual activities to do in San Francisco

Palace History Tour Gather the family and take a tour of San Francisco's most historic hotel. Originally established in , the Palace is an icon that has fun and fabulous stories hiding around every corner.

Over 10 million walkers and cyclists walk and bike across the Golden Gate Bridge every year – it offers one of the most amazing views of the SF skyline, Alcatraz , Angel Island , SF Bay usually filled with sailboats , and the Pacific Ocean. Book early because it sells out fast. The "Cell Block" audio walking tours are fascinating. Pier 39 also has fun shops, restaurants and attractions, including Aquarium of the Bay – check out their beautiful jelly fish! Be prepared to wait in line, especially during peak tourist season. Enjoy Tea Tastings at fun Chinatown tea shops and learn the wonders of tea. Enjoy tea in their open-air Tea Room that overlooks the gardens. Lombard Street – Crookedest Street in the World! The views from the top of Lombard Street are stunning. You can see Coit Tower and Alcatraz. The Cable Car Powell-Hyde line stops here to let passengers take pictures. North Beach has so many great restaurants – here are a few of our favorites: The show is a hilarious musical fairy-tale, featuring performers in wildly extravagant costumes and outrageously huge hats. Prepare to be entertained: Ghirardelli Square is a fun place to visit - it offers fabulous waterfront dining, upscale art galleries, fine shops, live entertainment, and great people-watching. Champagne Brunch Cruise on SF Bay Treat your honey to a romantic Champagne Brunch Cruise what better way to cruise the picturesque waters of San Francisco Bay than sipping on champagne and mimosas and enjoying a lavish brunch. The state-of-the-art museum houses priceless collections of American art and art of the Native Americas, Africa, and the Pacific. Our favorite Special Exhibits have included: In February the museum announced an exciting addition to its permanent collection – promised gifts of works by some of the biggest names in art in the last half-century – Jackson Pollock, David Smith, Willem de Kooning, Jasper Johns, Robert Rauschenberg, Francis Bacon and Gerhard Richter. Muir Woods is a very popular Marin attraction and it can get very crowded. We suggest that you take a leisurely tour and leave the driving and parking hassles to someone else. No need to worry about drinking and driving – take a fun California Wine Country Tour from San Francisco and leave the driving to someone else. California has very tough drinking and driving enforcement. See its majestic granite cliffs, giant Sequoias and spectacular flowing waterfalls. More Fun SF Tours.

Chapter 6 : Things To Do With Kids in San Francisco Bay Area

*At the top of your Opera window, near the web address, you should see a gray location racedaydvl.com. In the window that pops up, click Clear This Setting; You're good to go! Reload this Yelp page and try your search again.*

All of this led me to create a list of fun and interesting bits of information about SF. Read on to discover 25 things you probably did not know about San Francisco. Before it was renamed to San Francisco, this small city by the bay was called Yerba Buena. Yerba Buena means, "Good herb" in Spanish. It was founded in 1776, but renamed in 1847. Portsmouth Square in Chinatown was the location of the public square in Yerba Buena. SF has the second largest Chinatown outside of Asia. It is around one mile long by one and a half miles wide. More than 100,000 people live in Chinatown. SF also has the largest and oldest Japantown in the United States. You will find them in the China exhibit. The city is built on more than 50 hills. Many believe it only has 7 or 9 hills, but there are a total of more than 50 named hills. While there are sharks that live in the bay, most are small and not very dangerous. There are numerous great white sharks that live close by in the Pacific Ocean, but they rarely make their way into the bay. Although a great white was spotted feeding in the SF Bay and caught on camera for the first time in October! SF is home to the largest competition of American wines in the world. The annual Chronicle Wine Competition is held every February. You can sample the winners and other entrants at the public tasting held a few weeks after the winners are announced. In addition to loving wine, the locals also love independent films. SF is home to more than 50 film festivals each year. Some are large international festivals. You are not allowed to bury your dead within the city limits. Because of this restriction, only two cemeteries remain. One is behind the Mission San Francisco de Asis. The other is the National Cemetery in the Presidio. In 1906, the board of supervisors voted to stop all burials within the city limits due to space issues. To make more room, they then decided to move the current graves down to Colma. This move took place between the 1800s and the 1900s. His working lab was at Green Street. It allowed the city to rebuild and show that they were once again an international city. Almost 19 million people from around the world attended this nine month event. It was the primer used to protect the steel for the bridge during transit and the architect loved it more than the other options, so he selected it as the official color. They thought it would make the bridge easier to see through the fog, especially if it was under attack. There are hundreds of earthquakes every year in the Bay Area. However, most are so small less than a 3. Al Capone arrived by train to Alcatraz. The warden at the time was so worried about security that they loaded the train car onto a barge instead of unloading the prisoners from the train and moving them to a boat. Capone was the main reason as they felt he may attempt an escape or there would be trouble if he was removed from the train car prior to it reaching Alcatraz. They are the not only the foggiest place in the US, but also in North America. We do get our fair share of fog here though. We are covered in it more than days a year with July and August being the foggiest months. San Francisco is not a large city. There are only around 800,000 people that live within the city and county of San Francisco. However, the entire bay area is home to more than 7 million people. You will never run out of new restaurants to try here. At any given time, there are more than 3,000 restaurants open in SF. Many famous people were born in San Francisco. Here is a list of some of the most famous: May 31, Bruce Lee, Actor: November 27, Alicia Silverstone, Actor: October 4, Aishea Tyler, Actor: September 18, Natalie Wood, Actor: July 20, Jerry Garcia, Musician: August 1, Robert Frost, Poet: March 26, Makoto Hagiwara of San Francisco is known as the creator of the modern day fortune cookie. He was the first person in the US to serve it in his tea garden in the late 1800s. Friedman invented the bendy straw in San Francisco. He received a patent on it in 1904. San Francisco is only seven miles long by seven miles wide. Due to its small size, it makes it really easy to see a lot in SF in just one day. It took only four years to build the Golden Gate Bridge - The recent rebuilding of the Oakland side of the Bay Bridge took 11 years - Attraction Tickets Make sure to pick up your tickets in advance for these fun and popular SF attractions Ad.

Chapter 7 : SAN FRANCISCO " best events, festivals, things to do " November

DOWNLOAD PDF FUN IN SAN FRANCISCO

Top San Francisco Fun Activities & Games: See reviews and photos of fun activities & games in San Francisco, California on TripAdvisor.

Chapter 8 : THE 10 BEST Fun Activities & Games in San Francisco - TripAdvisor

San Francisco is expensive. But if you know where to look, you can find fun free things to do and keep your wallet nice and fat. San Francisco is expensive. But if you know where to look, you can.

Chapter 9 : Free Things to do Today in San Francisco | Funcheap

Discover hidden attractions, cool sights, and unusual things to do in San Francisco, California from The Wave Organ to Beat Museum.