

Chapter 1 : Christian Poetry on Holy Spirit

Spiritual Poems about Life and After Death. God is truly man's best friend on this earth. No one loves like He. No one cares like He. He is patient and true and waits with open arms for us to return to Him in truth.

Do I wish to keep repeating the pattern? Take time to think, it is the source of power. Take time to play, it is the secret of perpetual youth. Take time to read, it is the fountain of wisdom. Take time to be friendly, it is the road to happiness. Take time to dream, it is hitching your wagon to a star. Take time to look around, it is too short a day to be selfish. Take time to laugh, it is the music of the soul. From each a mystic silence Love demands. What do all seek so earnestly? What do they whisper to each other? Love is the subject of their inmost thoughts. He who would know the secret of both worlds, Will find the secret of them both, is Love. None are so rich that can get along without it- And none are so poor but that can be made rich by it. It enriches those who receive, without making poor those who give- It creates sunshine in the home, Fosters good will in business, And is the best antidote for trouble- And yet it cannot be begged, borrowed, or stolen, for it is of no value Unless it is given away. Some people are too busy to give you a smile- Give them one of yours- For the good Lord knows that no one needs a smile so badly As he or she who has no more smiles left to give. Rassouli Support The Unbounded Spirit The Unbounded Spirit takes me hundreds of hours a month to research and write, and thousands of dollars to sustain. Chapter 2 : Fruit of the Spirit poem

Poems of the Spirit expresses the close contact of God to his creation through verse and speaks on how he is concerned about every aspect of our lives - from a delicate snowflake to the love of a mother.

A Little About the Book This book is made up of a collection of poems on various aspects of life. One does not have to be of any particular religion to appreciate these works. They speak to the spirit of its readers. The messages help the body get through the challenges of daily life. We Will Survive There are times when we feel we are all alone, When things have gone wrong in our once perfect home. We must look to God our Father for encouragement, As we strive for daily survival in our world of commitment. It does not matter what price we may one day pay, We know God has a hand in it to make it His way. Fear not, my friends, of what tomorrow may bring, God has full control and will bring us out of anything. It does not matter what time of the hour it seems to be, God sits on his throne and listens to His children He sees. He always knows just how much we can bear, But, He always gives us friends who really care. It does not matter what heartaches we carry today, God always sits and listens as He guides us on our way. Our answers may not come just as we so desire, But, Our Father knows our needs and heals us with compassion of fire. We must often stop and give a minute of our precious time, To give Holy praises to our Father who has been so very kind. I know He hears us when we faithfully pray, He has to hear us; He is safely guiding our way. God will help us as we travel down our long, painful road, He knows our burdens and will always balance out our load. You might feel the presence of His Holy Spirit passing by. We will all face at least one struggle within this era of time, But, God will surely return for all Christians He left behind. About the Author Shirley J. Today, I know, this is Authenticity. As I began to love myself, I understood how much it can offend somebody as I try to force my desires on this person, even though I knew the time was not right and the person was not ready for it, and even though this person was me. Today, I call it Respect. As I began to love myself, I stopped craving for a different life, and I could see that everything that surrounded me was inviting me to grow. Today, I call it Maturity. As I began to love myself, I understood that at any circumstance, I am in the right place at the right time, and everything happens at the exactly right moment, so I could be calm. Today, I call it Self-Confidence. As I began to love myself, I quit stealing my own time, and I stopped designing huge projects for the future. Today, I only do what brings me joy and happiness, things I love to do and that make my heart cheer, and I do them in my own way and in my own rhythm. Today, I call it Simplicity. As I began to love myself, I freed myself of anything that is no good for my health - food, people, things, situations and everything that drew me down and away from myself. At first I called this attitude a healthy egoism. Today, I know it is Love of Oneself. As I began to love myself, I quit trying to always be right, and ever since, I was wrong less of the time. Today, I discovered that is Modesty. As I began to love myself, I refused to go on living in the past and worry about the future. Now, I only live for the moment, where Everything is happening. Today, I live each day, day by day, and I call it Fulfilment. As I began to love myself, I recognized that my mind can disturb me and it can make me sick. But, as I connected it to my heart, my mind became a valuable ally. Today, I call this connection Wisdom of the Heart. We no longer need to fear arguments, confrontations or any kind of problems with ourselves or others. Even stars collide, and out of their crashing new worlds are born.

There are also several poems and readings of love on the Wedding Quotes and Wedding Sayings pages. Inspirational poems are listed by title Inspirational Poems: Footprints In The Sand One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of this life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. But I noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you. God is love and He enfoldeth All the world in one embrace With unfailing grasp He holdeth Every child of every race And when human hearts are breaking Under sorrows iron rod Then they will find the self-same aching Deep within the heart of God Inspirational Poems: Guideposts To Peace To be glad of life because it gives you the chance to love, and to work, and to play, and to look up at the stars To be satisfied with your possessions, but not contented with yourself until you have made the best of them. To despise nothing in the world except falsehood, and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice. To be governed by your admirations rather than your disgusts. To thing seldom of your enemies, often of your friends, and every day of Christ. These are the little guideposts on the way to peace. A meeting was held quite far from Earth. I can see through the clouds of the sky and I am not afraid of the waves of the sea. Little paths through green woods I love, and the sound of leaves on the ground, or of a nut falling, or even of a broken twig. I BELIEVE that the days to come already feel the wonder of the days that have passed, and will permit the wonder to endure and increase.
