Please click here to get the privacy notice for Alpha Psychiatric Associates. Alpha Psychiatric Associates is a group practice. You may be referred within the group to an appropriate health care provider according to your needs. Please ask about our fees and we would be happy to describe them in detail for you. To cover the costs incurred in searching, handling and copying medical records a fee for each request shall be: Clients in psychotherapy may occasionally have the need for crisis intervention by telephone. There is no charge for calls under 5 minutes concerning side effects of medications that you have been prescribed by a provider. However, if the medication call involves phoning in or otherwise reissuing a prescription, you will be charged. The on-call provider will only provide enough medication to last until your regular clinical visit. While we cannot guarantee an appointment with a clinician at your most convenient time; but we do our best to accommodate you. Your care is very important for us. If you are unable to keep an appointment, please notify our office immediately. This time is reserved exclusively for you. If an appointment is cancelled or missed without 24 business hours notice, you may be billed for the session. Some appointments are scheduled over the phone, and not in person. Our Assistant may call with your appointment date and time as a reminder, and may leave a message on your answering machine, or with a responsible party in your household, unless you specifically request us not to do so. With or without an answering machine or other party telephone reminder, you are still responsible for cancelling with 24 hours notice, or you may be billed for the session as above. As a courtesy to you, Alpha Psychiatric Associates PLLC will normally accept assignment of any insurance benefits you may have and file health care claims directly to your insurance company. However, payment of all applicable copays and deductibles or any other amount not covered by your primary insurer is required at the time services are rendered. Payment may be made by cash, check, credit or debit card. If you are unable to pay your obligation at the time of service, we may ask you to authorize Alpha Psychiatric Associates to charge your credit card for any balance due more than 60 days old. Please note that we will not charge your credit card if there is no balance due more than 60 days old. We accept ONLY cash or credit card during your first appointment, no checks please! Notwithstanding the former, Alpha Psychiatric Associates reserves the right to demand full payment for services rendered at the time of service. If you are covered by more than one insurance company and we receive prompt payment from your primary insurer, Alpha Psychiatric Associates will normally file claims to your secondary insurer as a courtesy to you. However, pending payment by your primary insurer, you may be asked to make payment at the time services are rendered of any amounts covered by your secondary insurer. Alpha Psychiatric Associates, PLLC will not be able to file claims to your insurance company unless you provide us with accurate and complete information about your insurance plan. Accordingly, we ask you to review your policy carefully and to be aware of any limitations on your benefits. You must also promptly inform us of any changes in your insurance coverage or we will not be able to file your claims. Similarly, many insurance companies are now managing their mental health benefits. This means you must consult your insurance booklet to see if your insurance must approve sessions before they occur. If this approval is not obtained, your insurance will not cover the sessions. Please note that you are ultimately responsible for all charges incurred for your treatment or the treatment of those for whom you are responsible. If for any reason your insurance company, or other third party payer such as a divorced spouse or lawyer, does not promptly reimburse Alpha Psychiatric Associates for services rendered, you will be responsible for those charges subject to any applicable law or the terms of any contract we may have with your insurer. Unless you specifically request not to receive a statement, you will be billed on a monthly basis for any past due balance you may owe. Payment of all services is expected within 30 days of the date they were rendered. Processing past due accounts is expensive and Alpha Psychiatric Associates reserves the right to add a finance charge to any past due balance accrued. Accounts with balances more than three months old may be referred to a collection agency for processing. Any confidential information you disclose to us during treatment, or any other confidential information we obtain while attending to you professionally, shall be held in confidence unless you permit us to disclose such information or where we are required to disclose such information by law. By signing this contract, you are agreeing to the disclosure of confidential information where such disclosure is necessary to obtain certification, authorization, or payment for your treatment, or where we are required to disclose information by the terms of our contract with your insurer or managed care company. For example, in order for your insurance company to cover your treatment, we may be required to periodically communicate details of your condition and treatment with them or with your managed care case manager. You are also expressly authorizing your provider to pursue appeals and grievances with insurers or managed care companies when those appeals are necessary to obtain payment for one of your insurance claims or when your provider believes an appeal of denial of care by your insurer is appropriate or necessary. By signing this contract, you are agreeing to the disclosure of confidential information to other physicians or therapists familiar with your case, where your provider decides it is clinically necessary or appropriate to do so. For example, if a physician or psychotherapist referred you to us for evaluation and treatment, our providers may communicate with that professional about your condition and treatment. Please tell us in advance if you want certain information withheld. Similarly, if we refer you to another physician or therapist within Alpha Psychiatric Associates for treatment, that provider will have access to your records and may communicate with your prior provider s. The following are examples: If we assess that you are a clear and imminent danger to yourself or another person, appropriate others may be notified to prevent that occurrence. If there is reason to suspect that child or elder abuse has occurred, the law requires that it be reported to the proper authorities. In a legal proceeding, the Judge may order disclosure of information he or she feels would be necessary for the proper administration of justice. Please discuss the possibility of court appearances with your doctor or therapist as far in advance as possible. Several providers share a rotating on-call schedule, after hours and weekends. You may leave a phone message which will be picked up on Monday. Click here for the list of crisis centers by county.
