You are given 65 minutes to complete the section. The passages are presented either individually or paired with another passage. Some of the passages may contain tables, graphs, or charts - but require no math or topic-specific knowledge. The passages will always include: One passage from classic or contemporary literature from the US or worldwide One passage about a social science topic e. Constitution or a speech by a President Two passages or a passage and a passage pair that are science focused, including Earth science, chemistry, physics, or biology. The SAT Reading section attempts to measure the following: Command of Evidence - find evidence that best supports an answer; determine how authors support their claims with evidence; identify relationships between informational graphics and reading passages. You are given 35 minutes to complete this section. This section presents reading passages that contain deliberate errors. You are asked to correct the errors by choosing the best possible replacement. This section still requires a firm grasp of grammar rules including punctuation and common English usage. You are expected to choose words that will improve the tone, style or syntax of the selection. You are expected to select changes to the passages that improve them. The No Calculator section has 20 questions with a 25 minute time limit. The calculator permitted section has 38 questions with a 55 minute time limit. There are two types of questions in the math section - traditional multiple choice and "grid in" questions which require you to determine the answer with selecting from choices. The SAT Math section focuses on the following math topics: Passport to Advanced Math - create and solve quadratic and exponential functions; create equivalent forms of algebraic expressions; add, subtract, and multiply polynomial expressions; understand relationship between zeros and factors of polynomials. SAT Essay The optional SAT essay component will require you to read a passage and write an essay that explains how the author develops a persuasive argument. You are given 50 minutes to complete the essay. Every SAT essay prompt is nearly identical to this example: As you read the passage below, consider how [author] uses evidence, such as facts or examples, to support claims. Be sure that your analysis focuses on the most relevant features of the passage. The SAT topic is different every time, but will always have the following attributes:
