By Roger Berkowitz and Jane Doerfer Illustrated by Edward Koren Much more than a cookbook, this is the ultimate sourcebook from America's seafood specialists!

History[edit] In , Harry Berkowitz opened the "Legal Cash Market" in the Inman Square neighborhood of Cambridge, Massachusetts and the name for the market came from the "Legal Stamps", also known as trading stamps , given to loyal customers. This was done to add a degree of specialty to the grocery business by offering customers a fish counter where they could get fresh fish. In , the Berkowitz family decided to open a restaurant in the adjacent space. They served mainly fish and chips, fried clams , fried shrimp , and fried scallops served on paper plates while the customers sat at picnic tables. Pierce building in Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts. Roger had worked in the family business since the age of ten, and is a graduate of the S. Later in the year, the restaurant later opened a location in the Philadelphia International Airport. Also in , the restaurant invited chefs from China to fuse Asian cuisine into the menu at the restaurants. This program was called "Cusineast" and some dishes created are still on the current menu. In , a new type of restaurant, Legal Test Kitchen LTK , opened with a menu that is 50 to 60 percent non-seafood and with lower prices than at their more traditional locations. In , Legal C Bar opened in Dedham, Massachusetts , focused on serving casual seafood and custom cocktails. In , Legal opened their new flagship restaurant, Legal Harborside on the Boston waterfront [31] and it was soon named "Best New Restaurant" by Esquire magazine. The leak was reportedly caused by a faulty flue pipe attached to a gas water heater. He also pledged to be at the forefront of legislative efforts to require the use of carbon monoxide detectors in commercial buildings. The restaurant will be the anchor of a new 30,square-foot building that is part of Garden City Center. Over 40 varieties of fresh fish and shellfish , simply prepared according to New England tradition , are featured throughout the year. Most popular items include: Extensive wine lists and full-service bars are also available at all locations and have garnered recognition for its philosophy of offering value at all price points. By buying directly from day boat fishing operations, the company markets itself as having the freshest fish. The Boston , Massachusetts Legal Sea Foods restaurant sponsored a January dinner that featured several species of fish which were listed by the advocacy organization Seafood Watch as ones to avoid for sustainability reasons. Representatives of fishermen in Gloucester supported the choice to use locally sourced fish. In , Legal Fish Bowl opened. District of Columbia[edit].
