She also taught Jane that her virginity was like a flower - once crushed, it cannot be uncrushed. Influenced by her grandmother, Jane promised she would remain a virgin until marriage. As a little girl, Jane used to play make believe with her mom and pretend she was getting married. She would be the bride, and Xiomara would be the groom. Still, no matter how much she loved her mother, Jane still felt curious about her father and wanted him to be a part of it. She wrote her first short story when she was ten, discovering a magical new world. She danced with a handsome boy who she thought was great, but she was wrong. When Xiomara saw her date kissing another girl she grabbed the mic and started singing. Stephanie was popular and, when Xiomara broke up with her father, she turned everyone against Jane. Jane would later give this as the reason why she wanted to teach middle schoolers, so she could stop them from becoming mean girls. There was a spark between them when they first met. They talked for hours and he promised he would call her again, but he never did, and Jane was heartbroken. When Jane was nineteen she graduated high school and she was celebrating. She already had all the plans for her future and she attempted to make them happen. Michael was working as a cop in the area and came to the party due to noise complaints. He was not a planned child for Jane as Jane likes to plan her life in strict detail, he is her miracle and his entire existence, from the beginning, has given Jane the courage to risk her heart, to test herself, explore and experience life. It was Alba who first instilled in Jane the idea of staying a virgin until her wedding night, saying a virginity lost was like a smashed flower: She conceived and gave birth to Jane when she was sixteen. Xiomara decided she wanted to keep the baby and lied to her mother about the father's identity to protect him. For the same reason, Xo never told Jane who her father was either. She was with Jane when Jane found out she was pregnant and thought Jane was the Immaculata. Xiomara later tells Jane she can choose not to have the baby; saying it helps to have options. Xiomara and Jane share a loving, close and supportive relationship. Xiomara often would break up with boyfriends in order to protect Jane from them. Jane, however, points out that doing that meant Xiomara used her as protection to keep herself from being hurt. Rogelio and Jane Jane grew up without knowing her father, thinking he was someone Xiomara had known fleetingly that Jane would never meet. With this groundbreaking event in her life, Jane has the opportunity to get to know her father and have him as a part of her life. Jane and Rafael Jane and Rafael meet in summer at a club where Jane works and Rafael plays tennis. Jane had a major crush on him, and randomly one day Rafael drops in after hours. They talk about life and dreams and share a kiss, but Rafael never calls. When they meet again, Rafael has been through illness, is going through a divorce and is a different person. In an awkward situation, they reconnect and soon begin to develop feelings for each other. After Jane ends her engagement, they get together, but both struggle with the relationship: Though not a couple, they make every effort to get along to properly co-parent. In , Jane and Rafael are successfully co-parenting and best friends. She starts to develop feelings for him again but lets it go as the timing is wrong and starts a relationship with Adam. After Adam and Jane break up Jane and Rafael share a kiss by the window. As of Chapter Seventy-Two, they are currently dating. Adam and Jane Adam and Jane met around and dated for 8 months, had a very serious relationship which culminated in them wanting to marry when Adam was to move to NY for college and asked Jane to move in with him. Despite their harsh break-up when Adam called it off, they stayed in touch until In they meet again and their spark burns as bright as it had the first time. They immediately start something and go on adventures together, but stumble on the hasty course their relationship has taken. Eventually Adam chooses to take a job in L.

What does the Bible say about the virgin Mary? Mary needed grace from God and a Savior, just as the rest of us do. Mary herself understood this fact, as she declared in Luke 1: The Bible never says that Mary was anyone but an ordinary human whom God chose to use in an extraordinary way. Yes, Mary was a righteous woman and favored graced by God Luke 1: At the same time, Mary was a sinful human being who needed Jesus Christ as her Savior, just like everyone else Ecclesiastes 7: Mary was a virgin when she gave birth to Jesus Luke 1: The idea of the perpetual virginity of Mary is unbiblical. And he gave Him the name Jesus. Jesus had four half-brothers: James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas Matthew Jesus also had half-sisters, although they are not named or numbered Matthew There was never a better opportunity for Jesus to declare that Mary was indeed worthy of praise and adoration. Nowhere in Scripture does Jesus or anyone else direct any praise, glory, or adoration toward Mary. It was not based on any inherent glory in Mary. In fact, after this Mary spoke a song of praise to the Lord, extoling His mindfulness to those of humble state and His mercy and faithfulness Luke 1: Luke records the angel Gabriel visiting Mary and telling her that she would give birth to a son who would be the Savior. Mary was unsure how this could be since she was a virgin. May your word to me be fulfilled. Then the angel left her" Luke 1: We, too, should have such faith in God and trustingly follow Him. Joseph and Mary marveled at what Simeon had said. Simeon also told Mary, "Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign that is opposed and a sword will pierce through your own soul also , so that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed" Luke 2: Another time at the temple, when Jesus was twelve, Mary was upset that Jesus had remained behind when His parents had left for Nazareth. They were distressed in looking for Him. Jesus returned to Nazareth with His earthly parents and submitted to them. We are told, again, that Mary "treasured up all these things in her heart" Luke 2: Raising Jesus must have been a perplexing endeavor yet also filled with precious moments, perhaps memories that became more poignant as Mary came to more fully understand who Jesus is. We, too, can treasure in our hearts the knowledge of God and the memories of His activity in our lives. Even though Jesus seemingly rebuffed her at first, Mary instructed the servants to do what He told them. She had faith in Him John 2: Mary did seem to believe in Jesus throughout His life. She was present at the cross when Jesus died John Mary was also with the apostles on the day of Pentecost Acts 1: However, Mary is never mentioned again after Acts chapter 1. The apostles did not give Mary a prominent role. Nothing is said about Mary ascending to heaven or having an exalted role there. As the earthly mother of Jesus, Mary should be respected, but she is not worthy of our worship or adoration. The Bible nowhere indicates that Mary can hear our prayers or that she can mediate for us with God. Jesus is our only advocate and mediator in heaven 1 Timothy 2: If offered worship, adoration, or prayers, Mary would say the same as the angels: Mary herself sets the example for us, directing her worship, adoration, and praise to God alone:

One of the best known Catholic saints is Alphonsus M. The "M" in his name is for Mary. He gave the Catholic church the following Mary prayer , which carries with it an indulgence of 3 years. Please note how the Mary of Catholicism is viewed, not only by this canonized Catholic saint, but also by the Catholic church hierarchy as a whole by their endorsement of a 3 year indulgence for praying this prayer written by him. The Mary of this Catholic saint is graphically portrayed in the following prayer to her centering around salvation: Most holy Virgin Immaculate, my Mother Mary, to thee who art the Mother of my Lord, the Queen of the universe, the advocate, the hope, the refuge of sinners, I who am the most miserable of all sinners, have recourse this day. I venerate thee, great Queen, and I thank thee for the many graces thou hast bestowed upon me even unto this day; in particular for having delivered me from the hell which I have so often deserved by my sins. I love thee, most dear Lady; and for the love I bear thee, I promise to serve thee willingly for ever and to do what I can to make thee loved by others also. I place in thee all my hopes for salvation; accept me as thy servant and shelter me under thy mantle, thou who art the Mother of mercy. And since thou art so powerful with God, deliver me from all temptations, or at least obtain for me the strength to overcome them until death. From thee I implore a true love for Jesus Christ. Through thee I hope to die a holy death. My dear Mother, by the love thou bearest to Almighty God, I pray thee to assist me always, but most of all at the last moment of my life. Forsake me not then, until thou shalt see me safe in heaven, there to bless thee and sing of thy mercies through all eternity. Such is my hope. Tan Books and Publishers, Inc. This book was from his much larger one entitled, The Glories of Mary. From that prayer is a crystal clear teaching which points one, not to the Lord Jesus, but instead to Mary. It becomes painfully obvious that the many Catholics who believe and pray this way, think Mary can do all of the following: Is Mary The Mother of Sorrows Too The Mary of the Bible has been grossly misrepresented and changed by Catholicism into a sinless, virgin, queen of the universe, gate of heaven and refuge of sinners, who is to be trusted in for salvation and deliverance from hell. Dear reader, as kindly as it can be written, please know that this kind of emphasis on Mary is idolatrous, as well as being contradictory and antithetical to the teachings of the Lord Jesus and his apostles. He alone can lead us to Paradise. He is the gate of heaven and refuge of sinners. Salvation hinges on us repenting from our sins and placing a trusting-submissive faith in Jesus. Notice how Jesus is magnified in the following Scripture: He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars -- their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death. That is especially clear as shown by actual salvation sermons recorded in the Bible , which were preached by Jesus and his apostles. Please read the four gospels and the entire book of Acts and examine these original salvation sermons for yourself.
