Why is it that so many people think they can't draw? Where did we learn to believe that? Graham Shaw will shatter this illusion - quite literally - in a very practical way.

A biological research team at Bielefeld University has made a groundbreaking discovery showing that plants can draw an alternative source of energy from other plants. This finding could also have a major impact on the future of bioenergy eventually providing the evidence to show that people draw energy from others in much the same way. Members of Professor Dr. Flowers need water and light to grow and people are no different. Our physical bodies are like sponges, soaking up the environment. Plants engage in the photosynthesis of carbon dioxide, water, and light. In a series of experiments, Professor Dr. Olaf Kruse and his team cultivated the microscopically small green alga species Chlamydomonas reinhardtii and observed that when faced with a shortage of energy, these single-cell plants can draw energy from neighbouring vegetable cellulose instead. These are then transported into the cells and transformed into a source of energy: Currently, the scientists are studying whether this mechanism can also be found in other types of alga. Preliminary findings indicate that this is the case. Stay centered and grounded. If you are centered within your spiritual self instead of your analyzer or ego you will sense right away when something has moved into your space. Be in a state of non-resistance. What we resists sticks. Move into a state of non-resistance by imagining that your body is clear and translucent like clear glass or water. This way, if someone throws some invalidation at you, it will pass right through you. Own your personal aura space. We each have an energetic aura surrounding our body. Become aware of your aura boundaries about an arms length away from your body all the way around, above and below as a way to own your personal space. Give yourself an energy cleanse. The color gold has a high vibration which is useful for clearing away foreign energy. Imagine a gold shower nozzle at the top of your aura a few feet above your head and turn it on, allowing clear gold energy to flow through your aura and body space and release down your grounding. You will immediately feel cleansed and refreshed. Call back your energy. But as we focus on other people and projects we sometimes spread our energy around. Create an image of a clear gold sun several feet above your head and let it be a magnet, attracting all of your energy back into it and purifying it in the gold energy. Then bring it down through the top of your aura and into your body space, releasing your energy back into your personal space.
